Quinoa Salad

with Chickpea Confit, Carrots, and Pistachios

This Middle Eastern salad is filled with hidden gems—ancient grains (quinoa, millet, and amaranth), mixed dried berries, golden pistachios, and chickpeas prepared as a confit make this a luxurious dinner. The chickpeas are poached in a bath of olive oil, garlic, and lemon peel for an extra depth of flavor. If you want to enjoy this meal at your next picnic, keep the confit chickpeas and herb dressing separate until ready to serve.

2 tablespoons dried mixed berries
¼ teaspoon Saudi Arabian spice mix
1 lemon
1 clove garlic
1 tablespoon pistachios
1 can chickpeas
1 shallot
1 herb mix
⅛ ounce mint
⅛ ounce parsley
3 ounces baby spinach
3 ounces sour cream
½ cup shredded carrots
1 8" aluminum tin

You'll need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper
6" small pot with lid
baking sheet
aluminum foil blender or food processor (optional)

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

The skin of the lemon adds bright flavor to the chickpeas. It's easier to peel the strip of zest before halving.

Placing the tin on a baking sheet will help stabilize the chickpeas for easy transfer to the oven.

No blender? Finely chop garlic, mint, and parsley; place in a small bowl with remaining dressing ingredients and stir to combine.

1. Cook quinoa blend

Preheat oven to 400°F. In a small pot, combine quinoa and ancient grains, dried berries, half of Saudi Arabian spice mix (save remainder for another recipe), 1 cup water, and ¼ teaspoon salt. Bring to a boil over high heat, then reduce heat to medium low, cover pot, and simmer until water is absorbed and quinoa is tender, about 15 minutes. Remove pot from heat and let stand, still covered, for 10 minutes.

2. Prepare ingredients

While quinoa cooks, rinse all produce. Using a sharp knife, carefully peel a 2 inch–long strip of zest from lemon (see recipe tip), then halve lemon. Using the flat side of a knife, gently crush garlic clove. Place pistachios on a small piece of foil; bring edges of foil together and seal to form a pouch. Drain and rinse chickpeas; pat dry with paper towel.

3. Make confit chickpeas

Reshape aluminum tin, if bent, then place on a baking sheet (see recipe tip). Place lemon peel and crushed garlic in tin, then pour in enough olive oil to reach ¼-inch up sides of tin. Add chickpeas and season with ¼ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired; toss to coat. Add pistachio pouch to baking sheet and roast until chickpeas are tender and pistachios are fragrant, 12–15 minutes. Once roasted, open pouch to cool.

4. Prepare remaining ingredients

While chickpeas and pistachios cook, peel shallot and mince. Reserve 1 tablespoon for dressing; place remainder in a large bowl (big enough for the salad) with juice of ½ lemon and set aside to marinate until Step 6. Pick mint leaves, discarding stems. Roughly chop parsley leaves and stems. Pat spinach dry with paper towel.

5. Make herb dressing

Once chickpeas are cooked, use a slotted spoon to remove crushed garlic from tin and place in a blender or food processor with sour cream, mint, parsley, reserved 1 tablespoon shallot, juice of remaining lemon, 1 tablespoon olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired; blend until smooth (see recipe tip). Once cool, remove pistachios from pouch and roughly chop.

6. Plate quinoa salad

Using a slotted spoon, transfer chickpea confit to bowl with pickled shallot, along with 2 teaspoons olive oil from tin. Add carrots, cooked quinoa blend, spinach, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Toss to combine. Divide quinoa salad between serving plates and drizzle with herb dressing. Garnish with toasted pistachios and enjoy!
