Roasted Broccoli and Quinoa Bowls

with Pepitas and Chile-Lime Yogurt

Pepitas, or pumpkin seeds, become incredibly addictive when tossed with spices and roasted until extra crunchy. In this repeat recipe, we season them with cumin, coriander, and ancho chile for a garnish you'll want to sprinkle over everything. An herby, zingy jalapeño-yogurt sauce ties together the pepitas, quinoa, roasted broccoli, and avocado. It's one of our most colorful bowls yet, and dare we say, pretty good for you too.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Always wash your knife, board, and hands after cutting spicy chiles.

The pepitas can burn quickly, so it's best to keep an eye on them while they roast. Wait to start the yogurt sauce until they're out of the oven.

If you don't have a blender, stir everything together in a medium bowl until fully combined.

1. Cook quinoa

Preheat oven to 450°F. In a small pot, combine quinoa, 1 cup water, and ¼ teaspoon salt. Bring to a boil over high heat, then reduce heat to medium low, cover pot, and simmer until water is absorbed and quinoa is tender, about 15 minutes. Remove pot from heat and set aside, still covered, until ready to serve.

2. Prepare ingredients

While quinoa cooks, rinse all produce. Cut broccoli into ½-inch florets, if needed. Halve tomatoes. Roughly chop cilantro, keeping leaves and stems separate. Halve 1 lime and set aside for yogurt sauce; cut 1 lime into wedges for serving. Mince garlic. Halve jalapeño lengthwise. Using a knife tip, discard seeds and stem, and mince (see recipe tip).

3. Prepare pepitas and broccoli

On a baking sheet, toss pumpkin seeds with spice mix, ½ teaspoon olive oil, and ¼ teaspoon salt and arrange in a single layer. On a separate baking sheet, toss broccoli with 1 tablespoon olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired.

4. Roast pepitas and broccoli

Transfer both baking sheets to oven and roast until pepitas are lighty browned and fragrant, 2–4 minutes (see recipe tip). Remove pepitas from oven. Continue roasting broccoli until lightly charred, 8–10 minutes more. Set aside until ready to serve.

5. Make chile-lime yogurt

While broccoli roasts, in a blender or food processor, combine yogurt, honey, cilantro stems, juice of 1 lime, garlic, half of cilantro leaves, up to half of jalapeño (it's spicy, so feel free to use less), ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired, and pulse to combine (see recipe tip). If sauce is too thick, add up to 1 tablespoon water until smooth and pourable.

6. Plate broccoli and quinoa bowls

Halve avocado and discard pit. Using a spoon, carefully scoop out flesh, discarding skin, then thinly slice. Divide quinoa between shallow bowls and top with roasted broccoli, tomatoes, and avocado. Drizzle over chile-lime yogurt. Garnish with pepitas and remaining cilantro leaves. Serve with lime wedges. Dig in!
