Potato Latkes

with Applesauce and Mixed Green Salad

The biggest debate among latke lovers? Whether these fried potato pancakes should be paired with sour cream or applesauce. We've included both in tonight's traditional Hanukkah recipe, dressing up the condiments with fresh thyme and sautéed apples and shallot. For extra crispy cakes, be sure to dry the grated potatoes thoroughly and use enough oil to get them golden brown. Happy holidays!

Ingredients

- 2 russet potatoes
- 1 Gala apple, divided
- 1 herb mix
  - ⅛ ounce thyme, divided
  - ⅛ ounce chives
- 1 shallot, divided
- 2 cloves garlic
- 1 packet unsalted butter
- 2 containers applesauce
- ¼ cup flour
- 1 tablespoon Champagne vinegar
- 3 ounces mixed lettuces
- 3 tablespoons walnuts
- 2 packets sour cream

You'll need

- canola oil
- olive oil
- 1 egg
- kosher salt
- black pepper
- box grater
- 10" medium pan
- 12" large nonstick pan

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

The secret to perfectly browned and crispy latkes is drying the potatoes as much as possible. Be sure to wring out any excess moisture before frying. Repeat if necessary with a fresh towel.

Stand back to fry the latkes in case hot oil splatters. Note that later batches might cook quicker than the first since the oil's already hot. You should get about 8 latkes.

1. Prepare ingredients

Rinse all produce. Using the large holes of a box grater, grate potatoes, then place in a strainer over a medium bowl to drain. Slice off rounded sides of apple and thinly slice, discarding core. Cut half of apple slices lengthwise again into thin matchsticks (save remainder for salad). Strip thyme leaves, discarding stems, then mince. Thinly slice chives. Peel shallot and mince. Mince garlic.

2. Make applesauce

Heat butter in a medium pan over medium-high heat. When butter is foamy, add apple matchsticks and half of shallot and cook, stirring, until softened and fragrant, 2–3 minutes. Remove pan from heat and stir in applesauce and ⅛ teaspoon salt. Set applesauce aside until ready to serve.

3. Make latke mixture

Press grated potatoes down in strainer to remove excess moisture. Then, wrap potatoes in a clean kitchen towel or paper towels and squeeze to wring out as much water as possible (see recipe tip). Discard liquid and wipe bowl clean, then add flour, potatoes, garlic, remaining shallot, ¼ teaspoon thyme (save remainder), 1 egg, 1 teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Using your hands, mix well to fully combine.

4. Fry potato latkes

Heat 2 tablespoons canola oil in a large nonstick pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, working 1 at a time, add ¼ cup latke mixture to pan and, using a spatula, flatten each to about ¼-inch thick. Fry, working in batches and adding oil as needed, until golden brown and cooked through, 3–4 minutes per side (see recipe tip). Transfer latkes to a paper towel–lined plate to drain. Sprinkle over ¼ teaspoon salt.

5. Make salad and sour cream

While latkes fry, in a separate medium bowl, whisk together Champagne vinegar, 1½ tablespoons olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Pat mixed lettuces dry with paper towel and add to bowl with dressing, along with walnuts and remaining apple slices, waiting to toss until ready to serve. In a small bowl, whisk together sour cream, half of chives, and up to ¼ teaspoon thyme.

6. Plate potato latkes

Divide potato latkes between serving plates and top with sour cream and applesauce as desired. Toss salad and serve with latkes. Garnish with remaining chives and dig in!
