Pumpkin Risotto

with Roasted Delicata Squash and Crispy Sage

We love embracing fall flavors, especially when it comes to pumpkin-spiced anything. So tonight, we're infusing our tried-and-true risotto with pumpkin purée and a blend of cinnamon, nutmeg, ginger, and allspice. But if that wasn't enough, we're taking it one step further and topping this creamy risotto with seasonal delicata squash roasted to nutty perfection with crispy sage leaves.

- 2 ounces shaved Parmesan cheese

You'll need

olive oil
kosher salt
black pepper
8" medium pot with lid
8" medium pot
aluminum foil baking sheet

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Use remaining pumpkin purée in another recipe—try stirring it into oatmeal for a fall-inspired breakfast or swirl a few spoonfuls into your favorite hummus for a Sunday football snack.

Arrange your squash in a single layer on the baking sheet and space apart as much as possible—doing so will help them roast instead of steam.

1. Prepare ingredients and warm broth

Preheat oven to 450°F. Rinse all produce. Halve squash lengthwise, scoop out and discard seeds, then cut crosswise into ½-inch slices, discarding ends. Peel shallot and mince. Mince garlic. Pick sage leaves, discarding stems. In a medium pot, combine bouillon cube and 3½ cups water. Bring to a boil over high heat, then remove pot from heat and cover to keep warm until Step 3.

2. Sauté aromatics and toast rice

While broth warms, heat 1 packet butter in a separate medium pot over medium-high heat. When butter is foamy, add shallot and garlic; sauté, stirring, until softening, 3–4 minutes. Add rice and cook, stirring frequently, until toasted and translucent, 2–3 minutes (toasting the rice adds a delicious nutty flavor and prevents it from absorbing liquid too quickly).

3. Simmer risotto

Add white wine to pot with rice, still over medium-high heat; simmer until liquid is mostly absorbed, 1–2 minutes. Then, add warm broth and ½ teaspoon salt. Increase heat to high and bring to a boil, then reduce heat to medium-high and stir in pumpkin pie spice and ⅓ cup pumpkin purée (see recipe tip). Simmer, stirring occasionally, until liquid is mostly absorbed and rice is tender, 15–20 minutes more.

4. Roast squash and sage

While risotto simmers, line a baking sheet with foil. On prepared sheet, toss squash and sage with 1 tablespoon olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Arrange in a single layer, spacing apart, and roast until squash is lightly browned and tender and sage is crisp, 12–14 minutes (see recipe tip).

5. Finish risotto

While squash roasts, strip thyme leaves, discarding stems. Once rice is tender, remove pot from heat and stir in remaining 2 packets butter, half of Parmesan, ⅛ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired to combine.

6. Plate pumpkin risotto

Divide pumpkin risotto between serving plates and top with roasted delicata squash and crispy sage. Garnish with thyme and remaining Parmesan. Dig in!
