Potato and Pea Samosas

with Apricot Chutney

Tonight we're making traditional Indian samosas easy to whip up at home by using empanada doughs (a great shortcut for homemade) and baking them all at once (a fast, hands-free technique). The tangy apricot, lime, and cilantro chutney comes together while the pastries bake, and is the ideal condiment for dipping. You could also serve the samosas as an impressive, street snack–inspired appetizer.

  - 2 teaspoons garam masala
  - ¼ teaspoon ground ginger
  - ½ teaspoon ground turmeric
- 4 cloves garlic
- ⅔ cup peas
- 12 empanada doughs
- 10 ounces baby spinach
- ½ teaspoon ground cayenne pepper
- 4 ounces apricot preserves

You'll need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper
baking sheet
12" large pan

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Filling and forming the samosas is a great task for eager kitchen helpers.

If all of the raw spinach doesn't fit in the pan at once, no worries! It will release moisture and lose volume as it cooks down. Work in batches as needed, adding 1 handful at a time as the leaves shrink.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Peel potatoes and cut into ½-inch cubes. Halve limes. Rinse cilantro and roughly chop, discarding stems. Peel onions, halve, and cut into small dice. In a small bowl, combine 2 tablespoons onion and 1 teaspoon spice mix and set aside until Step 5. Mince garlic.

2. Roast potatoes

On a baking sheet, toss potatoes with 1½ tablespoons olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and black pepper, arrange in a single layer, and roast until lightly browned, 14–16 minutes. Meanwhile, heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a medium pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add garlic, remaining onion, remaining spice mix, and ½ teaspoon salt, and cook until softened, 3–4 minutes, then remove from heat.

3. Finish potato and pea filling

Once roasted, add potatoes and 3 tablespoons water to pan with aromatics, reserving baking sheet for Step 5. Mash potatoes with a potato masher or a large fork until just combined (the filling should have some texture, so don't mash until smooth). Stir in peas and half of cilantro, then transfer to a large bowl. Wipe pan clean and reserve for wilting spinach.

4. Form and bake samosas

Halve empanada doughs. Working 1 at a time, fold each dough in half to create a triangle, then pinch straight edge closed to seal. Spoon 1 tablespoon filling into each and pinch remaining edges closed, saving any extra filling for serving on the side (see recipe tip). Rub samosas all over with 2 teaspoons olive oil, arrange on baking sheet from potatoes, and bake until golden brown, 13–15 minutes.

5. Make chutney and wilt spinach

While samosas bake, add cayenne (it's spicy! Skip or use less if you like), apricot preserves, juice of 2 limes, remaining cilantro, and ½ teaspoon salt to bowl with reserved onion and spice mix, and stir to combine. Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in pan from filling over medium-high heat. Add spinach and cook, stirring, until wilted, about 3 minutes (see recipe tip). Season with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired.

6. Plate potato and pea samosas

Divide sautéed spinach and potato and pea samosas among serving plates. Spoon apricot chutney into small bowls and serve with the samosas for dipping. Dig in!
