Recipe Tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

If you're having trouble cutting your steak into very thin slices, try wrapping it in plastic and placing it in the freezer for about 15 minutes. Doing so allows the meat to firm up just enough, making it more stable and easier to slice.

If your cheesesteaks aren't standing upright on the baking sheet, try crumpling up some foil and placing it all around to help prop them up.

1. Prepare Ingredents

Preheat oven to 450°F. Peel onion, halve, and thinly slice. Wipe mushrooms clean with a damp paper towel and roughly chop. Rinse remaining produce. Halve bell pepper and poblano pepper lengthwise, discarding seeds. Cut both lengthwise into ¼-inch strips. Roughly chop parsley leaves, discarding stems. Wrap rolls together in foil. Pat steak dry with paper towel and cut against the grain into very thin slices (see Recipe Tip).

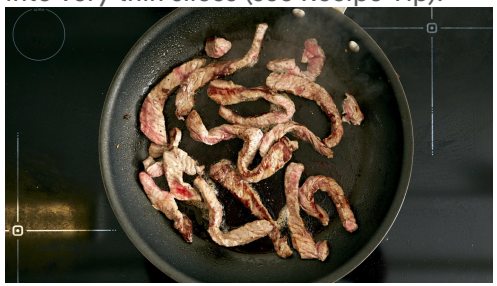

2. Sauté Onion and Mushrooms

Place rolls in oven to warm for 5-10 minutes. Meanwhile, heat 2 tablespoons olive oil in a large pan over medium heat. When oil is shimmering, add onion and mushrooms and sauté until softening, about 6 minutes.

3. Cook Peppers

Add bell pepper and poblano pepper to pan with mushrooms over medium heat and cook until onion is caramelized and peppers are softening, about 5 minutes. Add Worcestershire and cook until liquid is absorbed, about 2 minutes more. Taste and add salt and pepper as needed. Stir in parsley. Transfer to a plate and set aside.

4. Sear Steak

Wipe pan from vegetables clean and add 1 tablespoon olive oil over high heat. Season steak all over with ½ teaspoon kosher salt and pepper. When oil is shimmering, add steak and sear until browned on outside and medium rare, about 1 minute per side.

5. Assemble Cheesesteaks

Halve warmed rolls lengthwise, keeping intact. Divide steak evenly between rolls, then top with onion, mushrooms, and peppers. Arrange face up on a baking sheet. Tear provolone into medium-size pieces and lay on top of cheesesteaks, covering.

6. Plate Cheesesteaks

Transfer cheesesteaks to top rack of oven and bake until cheese is melted and bubbling, about 5 minutes. Skip the utensils and enjoy a taste of Philly wherever you live.
