Pumpkin Hand Pies

with Maple Glaze

We're creating a handheld version of one of our all-time favorite autumn desserts: pumpkin pie. To make the signature filling, we're blending together pumpkin purée, vanilla extract, brown sugar, and aromatic pie spices like cinnamon, nutmeg, ginger, and allspice. It's stuffed into squares of puff pastry dough and baked until golden and flaky, then drizzled with homemade maple glaze for a sweet final flourish.

- ½ teaspoon vanilla extract

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Save remaining pumpkin for another recipe—we like to swirl it into pancake batter for easy pumpkin pancakes or combine it with cheese as a sauce for pasta.

It might seem daunting to divide the beaten egg in half, but don't worry if you add a tiny bit more or less. Save yourself the headache and eyeball it!

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 425°F. Separate puff pastry squares and set aside to soften at room temperature. In a small bowl, whisk 1 egg. Line a baking sheet with parchment paper for Step 3.

2. Make pumpkin filling

In a medium bowl, stir together 1 cup pumpkin purée (see recipe tip), pumpkin pie spice, vanilla extract, brown sugar, half of egg (see recipe tip), and ¼ teaspoon salt until thoroughly combined. Reserve remaining egg for the next step.

3. Assemble hand pies

Arrange puff pastry squares in a single layer on prepared baking sheet, spacing apart. Using your hands, gently stretch or press puff pastry squares on sheet into slightly larger squares, about 6 x 6 inches each. Add pumpkin filling to centers of squares, leaving a 1-inch border. Lightly brush borders of pastry with some reserved egg (save remainder for the next step).

4. Bake hand pies

Gently fold 1 corner of each puff pastry square over pumpkin filling to form a triangle, then press edges with your fingers to seal. Cut a ½-inch slit on top of each hand pie so steam can escape, then brush over remaining egg. Bake until hand pies are puffed and golden brown, 14–16 minutes.

5. Make maple glaze

While hand pies bake, in a separate medium bowl, combine powdered sugar, sour cream, 1 tablespoon maple syrup (use remainder to drizzle over your morning oatmeal), and ⅛ teaspoon salt. Whisk until glaze is smooth and pourable.

6. Finish and plate hand pies

Let pumpkin hand pies cool for 5–10 minutes, then drizzle over maple glaze. Transfer to serving plates and dig in!
