Roasted Chicken Thighs

with Lemon Potatoes and Cipollini Onions

Cipollini onions are a small, flat variety that turn tangy and sweet when cooked. Tonight, we're roasting them with buttery Yukon Gold potatoes, lemon slices, and garlic to complement crisp-skinned chicken thighs. A "salsa" of sun-dried tomato and lemon provides bright color and a burst of umami for spooning over each bite.

Plated.

Ingredients

- 12 ounces Yukon Gold potatoes
- 1 lemon, divided
- 2 cloves garlic
- 6 ounces cipollini onions
- 2 ounces baby kale
- 4 chicken thighs
- 1 ounce sun-dried tomatoes
- 1 aluminum tin

You'll need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper aluminum foil baking sheet

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Plating the kale underneath the warm potatoes, onions, and chicken causes the greens to wilt slightly for extra tender results.

We like the elegant presentation and flavor of the roasted lemon slices and remaining garlic, but if you prefer, feel free to discard them before serving.

The chicken might have a slight odor as a natural reaction to its vacuum packing. USDA recommends cooking chicken to 165°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Rinse all produce. Cut potatoes crosswise into ¼-inch rounds. Halve lemon; thinly slice 1 half. Using the flat side of a knife, gently crush garlic cloves for Step 3. Trim and discard ends of cipollini onions, then quarter. Pat baby kale dry with paper towel.

2. Roast chicken thighs

Line a baking sheet with foil. Pat chicken dry with paper towel and place on prepared baking sheet. Rub all over with 2 teaspoons olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired, then arrange skin-side up. Roast until skin is crisp and chicken is cooked through and no longer pink, 25–35 minutes.

3. Roast potatoes and onions

While chicken roasts, reshape aluminum tin if bent, then add potatoes, onions, crushed garlic, lemon slices, 1½ tablespoons olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Toss to combine. Roast (with chicken), stirring halfway through, until potatoes are tender, about 20 minutes total.

4. Make sun-dried tomato salsa

While potatoes and onions roast, roughly chop sun-dried tomatoes and place in a small bowl, along with 1 squeeze lemon juice, 1 tablespoon olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Stir to combine.

5. Finish lemon potatoes and salsa

Once potatoes are roasted, add 1 clove roasted garlic to bowl with salsa (leave remainder behind in tin). Using a fork, mash to fully combine. Squeeze juice of remaining lemon over roasted potatoes and toss to coat. Taste and add salt and pepper as desired.

6. Plate chicken

Divide baby kale between serving plates (see recipe tip). Top with lemon potatoes and cipollini onions, spooning over any lemon-garlic oil from tin (see recipe tip). Finish with roasted chicken thighs. Spoon sun-dried tomato salsa over chicken. Enjoy!
