Roasted Chicken au Jus

with Orzo and Peas

Meat served au jus is the French way of saying "in its own juices." For tonight's roasted chicken, it's a super-flavorful pan sauce made with chicken stock, white wine, lemon juice, and chives, and finished with a little melted butter to make it rich and silky. Tender orzo pasta, peas, and a generous dusting of Parmesan round out this Popular Recipe.

Ingredients

- 1 lemon
- ¼ ounce chives, divided
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1 cup breadcrumbs
- 1 spice mix
  - ¼ teaspoon dried basil
  - ¼ teaspoon garlic powder
  - ¼ teaspoon onion powder
  - ¼ teaspoon dried oregano
  - ¼ teaspoon dried rosemary
  - ¼ teaspoon dried thyme
- 4 boneless skinless chicken breasts
- ½ cup white wine
- 16 ounces chicken stock
- 1 ounce grated Parmesan cheese
- 1½ cups orzo
- 2 cups peas
- 3 packets unsalted butter, divided

You'll need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper
8" medium pot with lid
12" large ovenproof pan

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

Deglazing is a technique in which adding liquid, like wine, to the pan after cooking protein loosens any browned bits stuck to the bottom. Scrape them up into your pan sauce—they are full of flavor.

The chicken might have a slight odor as a natural reaction to its vacuum packing. USDA recommends cooking chicken to 165°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 375°F. Bring a medium covered pot of water to a boil over high heat—covering the water helps it boil faster, and prevents it from evaporating before you're ready to use it. Halve lemon. Rinse chives and thinly slice.

2. Bread chicken

On a large plate, mix together flour, breadcrumbs, spice mix, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired to make breading. Pat chicken dry with paper towel and season all over with 1 teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Dredge chicken in breading, shaking off excess.

3. Sear chicken

Heat 2½ tablespoons olive oil in a large ovenproof pan over medium heat. When oil is shimmering, add chicken and sear, working in batches and adding oil in between as needed, until lightly browned, about 3 minutes per side (you're getting a flavorful sear on the outside here—the chicken will finish cooking in the oven in Step 5). Transfer chicken to a plate, reserving pan for making sauce, and set aside.

4. Make pan sauce

Return pan from chicken to medium heat and add wine. Cook, scraping up brown bits from bottom, until reduced by half, 1–2 minutes (see recipe tip). Add chicken stock and juice of 1 lemon. Increase heat to high and bring to a boil, then reduce to medium. Simmer until sauce is slightly thickened, about 5 minutes more. Remove pan from heat. Stir in half of chives, then taste and add salt and pepper as desired.

5. Roast chicken and cook orzo

Return chicken to pan, nestling into sauce, and sprinkle Parmesan over sauce and chicken. Transfer pan to oven and roast until sauce is bubbling and chicken is cooked through and no longer pink, 12 minutes. Meanwhile, season boiling water generously with salt. Stir in orzo and cook until al dente, about 12 minutes. Drain and return to pot, off heat. (P.S. This is a great time to catch up on dishes.)

6. Finish orzo and plate chicken

Once chicken is roasted, add peas to pot with orzo, still off heat, and stir in 1 packet butter to coat. Taste and add salt and pepper as desired, then divide among serving plates. Top with chicken, leaving sauce behind in pan. Stir remaining butter into sauce to melt, then spoon over chicken. Garnish with remaining chives and enjoy!
