Roasted Chicken

with Couscous, Spinach and Provençal Tomatoes

Roast chicken is one of our all-time favorite comfort foods—as it cooks, it fills the air with the fragrance of garlic and fresh herbs. In tonight's Mediterranean-inspired version, Parmesan is baked onto the chicken for golden, salty goodness. Enlist a helping hand to tear parsley leaves for a crispy breadcrumb topping for tomatoes, then sit back and enjoy the aromas filling up your kitchen.

Plated.

Ingredients

- 3 tomatoes
- ⅛ ounce parsley, divided
- 2 cloves garlic, divided
- 3 boneless chicken breasts
- 1 ounce grated Parmesan cheese, divided
- ¼ cup panko breadcrumbs
- ⅓ teaspoon dried thyme
- 1 container chicken stock
- ¾ cup Moroccan couscous
- 4 ounces baby spinach

You'll need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper aluminum foil baking sheet
6-inch small pot with lid

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

Another great task for your kitchen helper: topping the tomatoes! Don't stress if some breadcrumbs fall onto the baking sheet--the flavor will still be delicious.

The whole garlic clove infuses the couscous with aromatic flavor during cooking, but won't be pleasant to bite into. We recommend discarding it before serving.

The chicken might have a slight odor as a natural reaction to its vacuum packing. USDA recommends cooking chicken to 165°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 425°F. Rinse all produce. Halve tomatoes crosswise. Roughly chop parsley leaves, discarding stems, or enlist an eager helper to tear the leaves with their hands. Mince 1 garlic clove for Step 3, leaving remaining clove whole for Step 5. Line a baking sheet with foil for the next step.

2. Season chicken

Pat chicken dry with paper towel and season all over with ¾ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Arrange skin-side up on 1 half of prepared baking sheet (to make room for tomatoes in the next step). Sprinkle over half of Parmesan.

3. Prepare tomatoes

In a medium bowl, stir together breadcrumbs, thyme, minced garlic, half of parsley, remaining Parmesan, and 1 tablespoon olive oil to combine (this is a great task for a kitchen helper!). On other half of sheet with chicken, arrange tomatoes cut-side up and season with ¼ teaspoon salt and pepper. Spoon Parmesan breadcrumbs over tomatoes, dividing evenly (see recipe tip).

4. Roast chicken and tomatoes

Roast chicken and tomatoes until chicken is cooked through and no longer pink and breadcrumbs are golden, 12–15 minutes.

5. Cook couscous

While chicken and tomatoes roast, in a small pot, bring chicken stock and ¼ cup water to a boil over high heat. Then, remove pot from heat and immediately stir in couscous, whole garlic clove, and ¼ teaspoon salt. Cover pot and set aside until stock is fully absorbed, 5–6 minutes. Then, remove and discard whole garlic clove (see recipe tip). Add spinach and 2 teaspoons olive oil; stir to wilt spinach slightly. Cover again to keep warm.

6. Plate chicken

Use any remaining downtime while the chicken and tomatoes roast to set the table. Then, transfer roasted chicken, Provençal tomatoes, and spinach couscous to serving plates. Garnish everything with remaining parsley and dig in!
