Rosemary Pork Chop

with Fig Compote and Chive Butter Potatoes

Rich pork and chewy figs are a sweet-savory match made in heaven. For this total Plated hit, dried figs are simmered with sugar, cinnamon, and fresh citrus until thick and jammy, then drizzled over rosemary-seared pork chops and roasted vegetables for a fragrant, eye-catching touch. You're going to want to keep this Popular Recipe in your back pocket, no question...

MEALS WORTH MAKING

Ingredients

- 6 ounces green beans
- 8 ounces peanut potatoes
- 1 herb mix
  - ⅛ ounce chives, divided
  - ⅛ ounce rosemary
- 3 packets unsalted butter, divided
- 4 ounces dried Mission figs
- 1 navel orange
- 1 lemon
- 1 shallot
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 1 cinnamon stick
- 2 tablespoons slivered almonds
- 2 boneless pork chops

You'll need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper
2 baking sheets
6" small pot
10" medium pan

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

Space the vegetables far apart so they can roast, rather than steam. Keeping the cut sides of the potatoes in direct contact with the hot baking sheet also ensures crisp and brown results.

We recommend rinsing the pot from the compote ASAP to make cleanup easier—cooled sugar can be a tough scrub.

USDA recommends cooking pork to 145°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Rinse all produce. Trim and discard ends of green beans (try lining up the ends to cut them all together) and place on a baking sheet. Halve potatoes and place on a separate baking sheet. Thinly slice chives. Strip rosemary leaves, discarding stems, then finely chop. Unwrap butter packets and quarter. Roughly chop dried figs. Halve orange and lemon. Peel shallot, halve, and thinly slice.

2. Make fig compote

In a small pot, stir together sugar, whole cinnamon stick, figs, juice of 1 orange, juice of 1 lemon, ⅓ cup water, and ¼ teaspoon salt. Bring to a simmer over medium-high heat and cook, stirring occasionally and pressing figs with a spoon to break down, until liquid is mostly reduced and compote is thick and spreadable, 9–11 minutes. Remove pot from heat and set aside to cool until ready to serve.

3. Roast vegetables

While compote cooks, toss potatoes on sheet with 1 tablespoon olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper. Arrange cut-side down (see recipe tip); roast until golden, 10 minutes. Meanwhile, toss green beans on other sheet with shallot, ½ tablespoon olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper. Top with almonds and half of butter. After 10 minutes of potatoes roasting, transfer beans to oven. Roast together until tender, 6–7 minutes more.

4. Sear pork chops

While vegetables roast, pat pork dry with paper towel and season all over with rosemary, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a medium pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add pork and sear until browned and cooked through, 3–5 minutes per side. Transfer pork chops to a plate and set aside to rest.

5. Finish chive butter potatoes

Once roasted, remove potatoes and green beans from oven. To sheet with potatoes, add remaining butter and half of chives and toss well to fully coat.

6. Plate rosemary pork chop

Remove and discard cinnamon stick from fig compote. Divide chive butter potatoes and roasted green beans between serving plates. Top with pork chops and spoon over fig compote (see recipe tip). Garnish with remaining chives and dig in!
