Roasted Zucchini Bibimbap

with Crispy Rice and Pickled Slaw

Bibimbap, a classic Korean dish meaning "mixed rice," features sections of seasoned meat and vegetables over a bed of crispy rice. This seasonal, all-veggie spin includes garlicky spinach, pickled cabbage, and zucchini glazed in a sweet-and-savory sauce. Seared in a hot pan until golden and crisp, the rice adds fantastic texture to the bowls and is the perfect counter to the runny egg on top.

MEALS WORTH MAKING

Ingredients

¾ cup sticky rice
8 ounces zucchini
4 ounces baby spinach
1 clove garlic
1 tablespoon dark brown sugar
2 tablespoons gluten-free soy sauce
1 tablespoon gochujang
2 tablespoons sesame oil
2 tablespoons rice wine vinegar
1 slaw mix
- ¼ cup shredded red cabbage
- ¼ cup shredded carrots

2 packets Sriracha
1 tablespoon sesame seeds

You'll need

canola oil
2 eggs
kosher salt
black pepper
6" small pot with lid aluminum foil baking sheet
12" large nonstick pan with lid

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Gochujang adds a ton of flavor to the sauce, but you can use less depending on your spice preferences.

Classic bibimbap is cooked and served in scorching-hot stone bowls so the bottom develops an addictive crispy crust. We get a similar result by letting cooked rice sit in a hot pan until the bottom becomes golden and crunchy.

1. Cook rice

Preheat oven to 425°F. In a small pot, combine rice, 1¼ cups water, and ¼ teaspoon salt and bring to a boil over high heat. Stir once, reduce heat to low, cover pot, and cook until water is fully absorbed, about 12 minutes. Remove pot from heat and let stand, still covered, for 10 minutes. Fluff rice with a fork, then set aside, uncovered, to release steam (this will make it easier to fry in Step 4).

2. Prepare ingredients

While rice cooks, rinse all produce. Cut zucchini into ½-inch pieces, discarding ends. Pat spinach dry with paper towel. Mince garlic. In a large bowl, whisk together brown sugar, soy sauce, gochujang (see recipe tip), and half of sesame oil until fully combined. Add zucchini and toss to coat.

3. Roast zucchini

Line a baking sheet with foil. Using a slotted spoon, transfer zucchini to baking sheet, reserving sauce for Step 6. Arrange in a single layer, spacing apart, and roast until tender and lightly browned, 12–15 minutes.

4. Fry rice and pickle slaw

While zucchini roasts, heat remaining sesame oil in a large nonstick pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add cooked rice, press down into a single layer, and cook, without moving, until golden on bottom, 4 minutes (see recipe tip). Divide crispy rice between serving plates, reserving pan. Meanwhile, in a medium bowl, stir together rice wine vinegar, slaw mix, and ¼ teaspoon salt, then set aside.

5. Cook spinach and fry eggs

Heat pan from rice over medium heat with ½ tablespoon canola oil. When oil is shimmering, add garlic and cook, stirring, until fragrant, 1 minute. Stir in spinach and ¼ teaspoon salt until wilted, then add to plates with rice. Wipe pan clean. Add ½ tablespoon canola oil to pan over medium heat. Crack 2 eggs into pan. Season with salt and pepper. Fry until whites start to set, 2 minutes. Cover pan and fry until whites are mostly set but yolks are still runny, 2 minutes more.

6. Plate zucchini bibimbap

Add roasted zucchini to plates with crispy rice and spinach, spooning over reserved sauce. Drain pickled slaw, discarding pickling liquid, and add to plates. Top with fried eggs and sprinkle over sesame seeds. Drizzle over Sriracha (it's spicy, so feel free to use less), break that yolk, and dig in!
