Roasted Cod

with Lemon-Butter Sauce and Parmesan Mashed Potatoes

Tonight, we're riffing on a classic French sauce, beurre blanc, to add an elegant touch to roasted cod fillets. This version skips the traditional splash of cream, focusing instead on melted butter, white wine, and lemon juice to yield equally rich, tangy flavor. On the side, Parmesan-mashed potatoes laced with wilted spinach add even more decadence and a pop of color.

potato masher (optional)

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

While they cook, potatoes release starches into the boiling water. Adding some reserved potato cooking water to the mashed potatoes will make them extra creamy. It's easiest to reserve this water in a liquid measuring cup, if you have one.

Nuts can burn quickly, so keep an eye on them and stir frequently as they toast.

USDA recommends cooking fish to 145°F.

1. Boil potatoes and prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 425°F. Rinse all produce. Cut potatoes into ½-inch pieces, then place in a medium pot and cover with cold water by 1 inch. Season generously with salt and bring to a boil over high heat. Cook until tender when pierced with a knife tip, about 8 minutes. Meanwhile, pat spinach dry with paper towel and roughly chop. Halve lemon. Peel shallot and mince.

2. Toast almonds

Once potatoes are tender, reserve ½ cup potato cooking water (see recipe tip). Drain potatoes and return to pot, off heat; cover to keep warm until Step 4. Heat 1 packet butter in a medium pan over medium heat. When butter is foamy, add almonds. Cook, stirring occasionally, until golden, 3–4 minutes (see recipe tip). Transfer to a paper towel–lined plate and set aside for garnish, reserving pan, off heat, for Step 5.

3. Roast cod

Line a baking sheet with foil. Pat cod dry with paper towel and place on prepared baking sheet. Rub all over with ¼ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Roast until cod is opaque and cooked through, 7–10 minutes.

4. Mash potatoes

While cod roasts, using a large fork or potato masher, mash potatoes until smooth. Stir in Parmesan, 1 tablespoon olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Adding 1 tablespoon at a time, stir in reserved potato cooking water until potatoes are silky. Cover pot; set Parmesan mashed potatoes aside for Step 6.

5. Make lemon-butter sauce

Return pan from almonds to medium heat with 1 tablespoon olive oil. When oil is shimmering, add shallot and sauté, stirring, until soft and translucent, 1–2 minutes. Add white wine and cook until liquid is mostly evaporated, 2–3 minutes more. Remove pan from heat. Add juice of 1 lemon, remaining butter, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired; stir until butter is melted and sauce is fully combined.

6. Plate roasted cod

Stir spinach into pot with mashed potatoes to wilt slightly, then divide Parmesan mashed potatoes and roasted cod between serving plates. Spoon lemon-butter sauce over fish. Garnish everything with toasted almonds. Dig in!
