Roasted Chicken au Jus

with Delicata Squash, Potatoes, and Chive

Meat served au jus is the French way of saying "in its own juices." For tonight's roasted chicken, it's a super-flavorful pan sauce made with chicken stock, white wine, lemon juice, and chive, and finished with a little melted butter to make it rich and silky. Simple roasted potato and delicata squash round out this seasonal twist on a Plated menu favorite.

Ingredients

- 1 lemon
- ⅛ ounce chives, divided
- 12 ounces red-skinned potatoes
- 1 delicata squash
- 1 tablespoon flour
- ½ cup breadcrumbs
- 1 spice mix
  - ⅛ teaspoon dried basil
  - ⅛ teaspoon garlic powder
  - ⅛ teaspoon onion powder
  - ⅛ teaspoon dried oregano
  - ⅛ teaspoon dried rosemary
  - ⅛ teaspoon dried thyme
- 2 boneless skinless chicken breasts
- ¼ cup white wine
- 8 ounces chicken stock
- ½ ounce grated Parmesan cheese
- 1 packet unsalted butter

You'll Need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper baking sheet
10" medium ovenproof pan

Recipe Tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

Before preheating, make sure there's enough room in your oven for the medium pan and baking sheet to fit at the same time—move around racks if needed.

The chicken might have a slight odor as a natural reaction to its vacuum packing. USDA recommends cooking chicken to 165°F.

1. Prepare Ingredients

Preheat oven to 425°F (see Recipe Tip). Rinse all produce. Halve lemon. Thinly slice chives. Cut potatoes into ½-inch pieces. Halve delicata squash lengthwise and scoop out and discard seeds, then cut crosswise into ½-inch slices, discarding ends. On a baking sheet, toss potatoes and squash with 1 tablespoon olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Set aside until chicken is ready to roast.

2. Bread Chicken

On a large plate, combine flour, breadcrumbs, spice mix, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired to make breading. Pat chicken dry with paper towel and season all over with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Dredge chicken in breading, shaking off excess.

3. Sear Chicken

Heat 1½ tablespoons olive oil in a medium ovenproof pan over medium heat. When oil is shimmering, add chicken and sear until lightly browned, about 3 minutes per side (you're getting a flavorful sear on the outside here—the chicken will finish cooking in the oven). Transfer chicken to a plate, leaving juices behind in pan to make sauce.

4. Make Pan Sauce

Return pan from chicken to medium heat. Add wine and cook, scraping up brown bits from bottom, until reduced by half, 1-2 minutes. Add chicken stock and juice of ½ lemon. Increase heat to high and bring to a boil, then reduce to medium and simmer until sauce is slightly thickened, 3-4 minutes more. Remove pan from heat. Stir in half of chives, then taste and add salt and pepper as desired. Save remaining lemon for another recipe.

5. Roast Chicken and Vegetables

Return chicken to pan, nestling into sauce, and sprinkle Parmesan over sauce and chicken. Transfer pan with chicken and baking sheet with vegetables to oven and roast together until sauce is bubbling and chicken is cooked through and no longer pink, 12 minutes. (P.S. This is a great time to pour a refreshing beverage!) Remove pan with chicken from oven, leaving vegetables to continue roasting until tender, about 7 minutes more.

6. Finish Sauce and Plate

While vegetables finish roasting, transfer chicken to serving plates, leaving sauce behind in pan and placing over high heat. Boil until sauce is thickened and reduced by half, 1-2 minutes. Remove pan from heat, stir in butter to melt, then spoon over chicken. Garnish chicken au jus with remaining chives and enjoy with roasted vegetables.
