Seared Salmon

with Orange Butter Sauce, Roasted Vegetables, and Dill

Tonight's golden salmon sits atop tender fingerling potatoes and haricots verts (skinny French green beans), which roast together before being tossed with fragrant dill. To complete the salmon, you'll whip up a simple pan sauce of butter, orange juice, apple cider vinegar, and garlic. Fresh orange wedges bring the sunny citrus flavor full-circle.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Arranging the potatoes cut-side down helps them get brown and crisp thanks to the direct contact with the baking sheet. After about 12 minutes of roasting, you'll add the haricots verts to the same baking sheet—but don't toss to combine, so as not to disturb the crisping potatoes.

Your salmon is finished cooking when it flakes easily with a fork or a thin knife inserted into the fish meets no resistance. USDA recommends cooking fish to 145°F.

1. Prepare vegetables

Preheat oven to 450°F. Rinse all produce. Halve potatoes lengthwise. Trim and discard ends of haricots verts (line up the ends to trim them all at once). Pat salmon dry and season all over with 1 teaspoon salt and pepper as desired.

2. Roast vegetables

On a baking sheet, toss potatoes with 2 tablespoons olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Arrange cut-side down in a single layer, spacing apart as much as possible (see recipe tip). Roast until beginning to soften, 12 minutes (move on to Step 3, but don't forget to come back!). Then, add haricots verts and continue roasting until tender and potatoes are golden brown, 5–7 minutes more.

3. Prepare remaining ingredients

While potatoes roast, halve oranges; set aside 1 orange for seasoning butter in Step 5. Arrange remaining 2 halves cut-side down on cutting board and, using a knife, peel and discard skins and pith; then, cut flesh into ½-inch wedges. Roughly chop dill sprigs (the stems are actually quite tender, so we've included them for extra flavor and aroma). Mince garlic.

4. Sear salmon

Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add salmon skin-side up. Sear until golden on bottom, 5 minutes. Flip salmon and cover pan, keeping lid slightly ajar for steam to escape. Continue searing until salmon is cooked through and opaque, 3–5 minutes more (see recipe tip). Transfer salmon to a plate to rest; wipe pan clean for the next step.

5. Make orange butter sauce

Place pan from salmon over medium heat and add butter. When butter is foamy, add garlic and cook, stirring, until fragrant, 1 minute. Remove pan from heat. Whisk in apple cider vinegar and juice of 1 orange to combine. Taste and season with salt and pepper as desired.

6. Plate salmon

Once roasted, add dill to baking sheet with potatoes and haricots verts and toss to combine. Divide roasted vegetables among serving plates, then scatter over orange wedges. Top with seared salmon, then spoon over orange butter sauce. Enjoy!
