Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

Pat your arugula and parsley very dry to ensure that your panzanella can soak up the vinaigrette without getting soggy.

How much garlic do you prefer? For a stronger flavor, mince the whole clove; if you prefer a milder dressing, use half or skip entirely.

Cutting meat against the grain ensures tenderness. Find the direction of the grain (muscle fibers) and slice across it, rather than parallel. USDA recommends cooking this steak to 160°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 400°F. Rinse all produce. Pat arugula dry with paper towel. Pat parsley dry and pick leaves, discarding stems (see recipe tip). Halve red and yellow bell peppers lengthwise, discarding seeds and stems, then cut into 1-inch pieces. Cut ciabatta into 1-inch cubes and place on a baking sheet.

2. Toast ciabatta

Toss ciabatta on baking sheet with 1 tablespoon olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and black pepper as desired. Arrange in a single layer and bake until toasted and golden, about 10 minutes. Set aside, then increase oven temperature to 425°F.

3. Make vinaigrette

While ciabatta toasts, mince garlic and, still on cutting board, sprinkle over ⅛ teaspoon salt (see recipe tip). Using a large knife, carefully scrape over mixture at a 45° angle, pressing down. Repeat until garlic is broken down and a paste forms, then place in a large bowl. Add red wine vinegar, capers, and 1½ tablespoons olive oil to bowl with garlic paste and whisk to fully combine.

4. Roast bell peppers

Transfer toasted ciabatta to bowl with vinaigrette and set aside, waiting to toss until Step 6. Wipe baking sheet from ciabatta clean and add bell peppers. Toss with 1 tablespoon olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and black pepper as desired, then arrange in a single layer. Once oven has reached 425°F, roast bell peppers until just beginning to soften, 10–15 minutes.

5. Sear Steaks

While bell peppers roast, pat steaks dry with paper towel and season all over with ½ teaspoon salt and black pepper as desired. Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a medium pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add steaks and sear until browned and medium rare, 4–5 minutes per side. Transfer steaks to a plate and set aside to rest for about 5 minutes.

6. Plate steak and panzanella

While steaks rest, add Parmesan, arugula, parsley, and roasted bell peppers to bowl with ciabatta and toss to coat. Cut steaks against the grain into ½-inch slices (see recipe tip) and serve with bell pepper panzanella. Dig in!
