

Seared Steak

with Roasted Fingerling Potatoes and Red Pepper Sauce

The vibrant sauce in tonight's recipe is based on romesco, from the Catalonia region of northern Spain, usually made with roasted red peppers, nuts, and a bracing hit of vinegar. Here, instead of blending into the sauce, the hazelnuts are a crunchy garnish. Baby kale is one of our favorite early fall ingredients: The tender yet hearty leaves add a refreshing green note to the roasted potatoes and onions.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Wrapping the hazelnuts in foil before roasting ensures they'll toast evenly and won't burn before the potatoes are done.

Cutting meat against the grain ensures tenderness. Find the direction of the grain (muscle fibers) and slice across it, rather than parallel.

USDA recommends cooking beef to 145°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Rinse all produce. Halve potatoes lengthwise. Trim and discard scallion roots and cut into 1-inch pieces, keeping whites and light greens separate from dark greens. Peel onions, quarter, and separate layers. Place hazelnuts on a small piece of foil. Bring edges together and seal to form a pouch (see recipe tip).

2. Roast vegetables and hazelnuts

On a baking sheet, toss potatoes, scallion whites and light greens, and onions with 2 tablespoons olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and black pepper as desired. Arrange in a single layer, spacing apart. Add hazelnut pouch to baking sheet and roast until potatoes are golden and tender, onions are softened, and hazelnuts are fragrant, 15–18 minutes.

3. Sear steaks

While vegetables and hazelnuts roast, pat steaks dry with paper towel and season all over with 1 teaspoon salt and black pepper as desired. Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add steaks to pan and sear, working in batches and adding oil as needed, until browned and medium rare, 4–6 minutes per side. Transfer steaks to a plate and set aside to rest.

4. Make red pepper sauce

While steaks sear, in a blender or food processor, combine white wine vinegar, roasted red peppers, whole parsley sprigs, scallion dark greens, 2½ tablespoons olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and black pepper as desired. Blend until smooth. Alternatively, finely chop parsley, scallion dark greens, and roasted red peppers, place in a bowl with remaining sauce ingredients, and stir to combine.

5. Finish vegetables

Once roasted, remove hazelnut pouch from baking sheet and carefully open to let steam escape. Roughly chop hazelnuts. Pat baby kale dry with paper towel, add to baking sheet with vegetables, and toss to slightly wilt kale. Season with ½ teaspoon salt.

6. Plate seared steak

Once rested, cut steaks against the grain into ¼-inch slices (see recipe tip). Divide roasted potatoes, onions, and baby kale among serving plates. Top with sliced steak and hazelnuts, then drizzle over red pepper sauce. Dig in!
