Caramelized Onion Burgers

with Gruyère and Smoky Tomato Jam

Burger night just got a whole lot fancier. First, we dress up the patty with a tangy, smoky tomato jam that's bound to be your go-to summer condiment. Caramelized onions provide a sweet contrast to the jam, and melty Gruyère one-ups the traditional cheese slice. Serve with a simple salad for a stepped-up plate that tastes as special as it looks.

baking sheet

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Burger patties tend to puff up when cooked. Creating a shallow dimple in the center of each helps them cook evenly and keep their shape.

USDA recommends cooking ground beef to 160°F.

1. Make tomato jam

Preheat oven to 425°F. Rinse all produce. Peel onion, halve, and thinly slice. Mince garlic. Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add whole grape tomatoes; cook, stirring, until beginning to burst, 4–5 minutes. Using a spoon, mash tomatoes to release their juices. Add smoked paprika and half of garlic; cook, stirring to combine, 30 seconds more. Remove pan from heat.

2. Form burgers

Transfer tomato jam to a small bowl and season with ¼ teaspoon salt and pepper. Wipe pan clean for the next step. In a medium bowl, combine Worcestershire, remaining garlic, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Pat beef dry with paper towel and add to bowl. Using your hands, mix well, then form into 2 equal patties, about 1 inch thick. Using your thumb, create a dimple on top of each (see recipe tip).

3. Cook burgers

Return pan from tomato jam to medium-high heat with 1 teaspoon olive oil. When oil is shimmering, add burgers and sear, without flipping, until browned on bottom, about 4 minutes. Flip burgers and continue searing until browned and medium rare, 3–4 minutes more. Transfer to cutting board to rest. Wipe pan clean and reserve, off heat, for Step 5.

4. Toast buns

While burgers cook, slice buns open horizontally, if they arrived whole; arrange cut-side up on a baking sheet. Spread mustard evenly over cut sides of buns and top with Gruyère. Bake until cheese is melted and buns are toasted, 5–6 minutes.

5. Caramelize onion and make dressing

While buns toast, return pan from burgers to medium-high heat with 2 teaspoons olive oil. When oil is shimmering, add onion and cook, stirring, until light brown and softened, 5–6 minutes. Stir in butter and 2 tablespoons water to combine. Remove pan from heat. Meanwhile, in a separate medium bowl, whisk together white wine vinegar, half of tomato jam, 1 tablespoon olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper.

6. Plate burgers

Pat mixed lettuces dry with paper towel, add to bowl with dressing, and toss to coat. Divide bun bottoms between serving plates. Top with burgers, then caramelized onion, then smoky tomato jam. Finish with bun tops. Serve with salad. Dig in!
