Total Time: 30-40 minutes Calories per Serving: 780

Serves: 2 people

Pesto is a popular sauce made with a blend of pine nuts and basil. Here, this Italian staple gets an update with hazelnuts instead of pine nuts and parsley in place of of basil. The rich toasted hazelnut flavor adds a nutty depth to a simple pasta dish that features seasonal cauliflower.

1. Prepare Ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Bring a large pot of water to a boil over high heat. Rinse cauliflower and break into 1-inch florets. Rinse parsley and finely chop leaves, discarding stems. Halve lemon. Rinse arugula.

2. Roast Cauliflower

On a baking sheet, toss cauliflower with 1½ tablespoons olive oil, ½ teaspoon kosher salt, and pepper. Arrange in a single layer, transfer to bottom rack of oven, and roast until browned and tender, 15-18 minutes (see Recipe Tip).

3. Make Pesto

While cauliflower roasts, add hazelnuts to a medium pan over medium heat. Toast until golden and fragrant, 5-7 minutes. Remove from pan and finely chop. Add to a large bowl along with parsley, juice of ½ lemon, and 3 tablespoons olive oil. Stir to combine. Alternatively, add to a blender and blend until smooth. Taste and add salt and pepper as needed. Use remaining lemon to brighten a glass of water.

4. Cook Tagliatelle

Add tagliatelle and a generous pinch salt to pot of boiling water and cook until al dente, 3-5 minutes. Reserve ½ cup pasta cooking water, then drain pasta.

5. Season Tagliatelle

Add tagliatelle to bowl with pesto and stir to combine. Add reserved pasta cooking water, 1 tablespoon at a time, until sauce is thick and clings to noodles. Add roasted cauliflower and arugula and stir until arugula is wilted. Taste and add more salt and pepper as needed.

6. Plate Tagliatelle

Garnish tagliatelle with pecorino and enjoy on your favorite plates.
