

Beef and Cauliflower Stir-Fry

with Curry, Spinach, and Rice

Tonight's take on Chinese beef and broccoli swaps out the green florets for another cruciferous vegetable: seasonal cauliflower! A dollop of red curry paste adds Southeast Asian flair. Combined with salty soy and sweet honey, it makes for an especially flavorful stir-fry sauce that's worth scooping up with every last grain of rice.

Ingredients

¾ cup white rice
1 pound cauliflower
1 shallot
1 clove garlic
¼ ounce ginger
1 tablespoon sesame oil
12 ounces ground beef
½ tablespoon red curry paste
2 packets gluten-free soy sauce
1 packet honey
5 ounces baby spinach

You'll Need

½ tablespoon canola oil
1¼ cups water
kosher salt
black pepper
6" small pot with lid
10" medium pan

Recipe Tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

Ginger skin can be trimmed with a knife, but if you've got a metal spoon handy, this is even easier: Simply scrape the tip of the spoon along the outside of the ginger to quickly peel its delicate skin. Voilà!

Feel free to drain off excess fat from the pan before seasoning the beef. Using a slotted spoon, transfer beef to a bowl. Let fat cool slightly in pan before disposing of it in the garbage, then return beef to pan for Step 5.

USDA recommends cooking ground beef to 160°F.

1. Cook Rice

In a small pot, combine rice, 1¼ cups water, and ¼ teaspoon salt, and bring to a boil over high heat. Stir once, reduce heat to medium low, cover pot, and simmer for 15 minutes. Remove pot from heat and let stand, still covered, for 10 minutes. Uncover, fluff with a fork, and set aside.

2. Prepare Ingredients

While rice cooks, rinse cauliflower and cut into ½-inch florets, discarding tough stem and leaves. Peel shallot and thinly slice into rings. Mince garlic. Trim and discard skin of ginger and mince (see Recipe Tip).

3. Sauté Cauliflower

Heat sesame oil in a medium pan over medium-high heat. Add shallot and cook, stirring, until soft and translucent, 2-3 minutes. Add cauliflower and sauté, stirring occasionally, until tender, about 6 minutes more. Transfer to a bowl and set aside.

4. Brown Beef

Wipe pan from cauliflower clean and add ½ tablespoon canola oil over medium heat. Pat beef dry with paper towel. When oil is shimmering, add beef to pan and season with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Cook, breaking up, until browned, about 5 minutes. Remove excess fat, if desired (see Recipe Tip).

5. Sauté Aromatics and Season Beef

Push beef to edges of pan. Add curry paste (or use just 1 teaspoon for a milder spice level) to center of pan, along with garlic and ginger. Cook until fragrant, 1-2 minutes. Add soy sauce and honey and cook, reincorporating beef until fully coated, 2 minutes more.

6. Finish and Plate Stir-Fry

Return cauliflower to pan with beef over medium heat. Stir in spinach, adding 1 handful at a time if it doesn't fit in the pan all at once. Cook until cauliflower is warmed through and spinach is wilted, 1-2 minutes. Taste and add more salt and pepper as desired. Divide rice between roomy bowls, spoon over stir-fry, and dig in!
