Beef Bolognese

over Roasted Zucchini Steaks

Bolognese is an Italian sauce named for the region from which it hails: Bologna. It's traditionally made with beef or pork, tomatoes, wine, and milk or cream. In this repeat favorite, in place of the usual pasta base, our decadent beef Bolognese is spooned over peak-season zucchini, cut lengthwise into "steaks" and roasted for a tender, meaty bite.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Too hot to turn on the oven? Grab a grill pan instead, and preheat to medium high. Rub zucchini all over with olive oil, salt, and pepper. Grill cut-side down until charred and completely tender, 3–4 minutes per side.

Using a slotted spoon will drain off any excess fat from the beef, so it stays out of your Bolognese.

USDA recommends cooking ground beef to 160°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F (see recipe tip). Rinse all produce. Halve zucchini lengthwise through stems, transfer to a baking sheet, and set aside. Roughly chop oregano leaves, discarding stems. Roughly chop or tear basil leaves, discarding stems. Peel onion and cut into small dice. Mince garlic. Pat beef dry with paper towel.

2. Brown beef

Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a medium pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add beef, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Cook, breaking up, until browned, about 5 minutes. Remove pan from heat. Using a slotted spoon, transfer beef to a plate (see recipe tip). Discard excess fat from pan and set aside for Step 4.

3. Roast zucchini steaks

Toss zucchini on baking sheet with 1 tablespoon olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Arrange cut-side down and roast until tender, 12–14 minutes.

4. Sauté tomatoes

While zucchini steaks roast, return pan from beef to medium-high heat with ½ tablespoon olive oil. When oil is shimmering, add whole grape tomatoes, onion, and garlic. Sauté, stirring occasionally until vegetables soften, about 5 minutes. Season with ¼ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired.

5. Simmer Bolognese

Return beef to pan with tomatoes, then stir in chicken stock, white wine, and oregano. Increase heat to high and bring to a boil, then reduce heat to medium high and simmer, breaking up tomatoes, until liquid is reduced by ¾ and flavors have melded, 8–10 minutes. Stir in 2 tablespoons heavy cream to warm through, about 1 minute more (save remainder for your morning coffee). Remove pan from heat. Taste Bolognese and add salt and pepper.

6. Plate beef Bolognese

Once roasted, divide zucchini steaks between serving plates. Place pan with Bolognese over medium heat to warm through, about 1 minute, then spoon over zucchini. Garnish with Parmesan and basil, and dig in!
