Beef Biryani

with Ginger Yogurt and Mint

Biryani is a traditional Indian rice dish flavored with bold spices, layered with meat, and often served on special occasions. Here, we're making it simple enough to cook any day of the week, while still feeling just as festive. An aromatic blend of cardamom, cumin, and ginger seasons browned beef. It's then tossed with turmeric-infused basmati rice studded with bright green peas and topped with crunchy fried almonds.

- 1 container nonfat Greek yogurt

You'll need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper
6" small pot with lid
12" large pan

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

Ginger skin can be trimmed with a knife or peeler, but if you have a metal spoon handy, this is even easier: Scrape the edge of the spoon along the outside of the ginger to quickly peel its delicate skin.

When mincing spicy chiles, avoid touching the inside, and wash your knife, cutting board, and hands afterward.

For a cheffy presentation, use the back of a spoon to spread yogurt inside bowls, then top with beef biryani, fried almonds, and mint.

USDA recommends cooking ground beef to 160°F.

1. Cook turmeric rice

In a small pot, combine rice, turmeric, 1¼ cups water, and ¼ teaspoon salt; bring to a boil over high heat. Stir once, reduce heat to medium low, cover pot, and simmer until water is fully absorbed, 10–12 minutes (move on to the next step, but don't forget to come back!). Remove pot from heat; let stand, still covered, for 10 minutes. Fluff rice with a fork, then add peas, without stirring to prevent peas from turning brown; cover again to keep warm until Step 6.

2. Prepare ingredients

While rice cooks, rinse all produce. Pick mint leaves, discarding stems. Trim and discard skin of ginger (see recipe tip). If you have a zester and want to infuse your yogurt with even more flavor, grate ginger on zester; alternatively, finely mince. Peel onion, halve, and thinly slice. Halve serrano lengthwise, discarding seeds and stem, then mince (see recipe tip).

3. Fry almonds and sauté onion

Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add almonds; cook, stirring, until golden and fragrant, 3 minutes. Using a slotted spoon, transfer fried almonds to a small bowl, reserving oil in pan. Return pan to medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add onion and serrano (use half for less heat); sauté, stirring, until beginning to soften, about 5 minutes. Season with ¼ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired.

4. Cook beef

Pat beef dry with a paper towel. To pan with onion, still over medium-high heat, add beef, advieh spice mix, ¾ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Cook, breaking up beef, until browned, about 5 minutes. Remove pan from heat.

5. Make ginger yogurt

In a small bowl, stir together yogurt, ginger, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired.

6. Plate beef biryani

Add turmeric rice and peas to pan with beef, still off heat, and toss to coat. Taste and add salt and pepper as desired. Divide beef biryani among serving bowls and dollop with ginger yogurt (see recipe tip). Garnish with fried almonds and mint. Dig in!
