Beef Bulgogi Buns

with Kimchi Slaw and Cheesy Corn

Tonight, we're stuffing steamed Chinese buns with bulgogi-spiced ground beef. They're topped with a cucumber and carrot slaw mixed with kimchi—a Korean condiment made of fermented cabbage that adds a sour and somewhat spicy punch of flavor. The buns are served alongside another Korean favorite—cheesy corn! Seasonal corn is sautéed with scallions and stretchy mozzarella for an addictive summer side.

- 1 package steamed buns
- 2 ounces shredded mozzarella cheese

You'll need

canola oil kosher salt
black pepper
10" medium pan
aluminum foil

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Need a trick for removing corn kernels from the cob? Lay each cob flat on your cutting board and carefully slice kernels off 1 side. Rotate cob and continue slicing to remove kernels on all sides.

Using a slotted spoon will drain off any excess fat from the beef so it doesn't end up in your buns. Pouring the fat down the drain might damage your pipes—instead, pour it into a heatproof container once it's cooled slightly, and dispose in the garbage.

USDA recommends cooking ground beef to 160°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 350°F. Rinse all produce. Shuck corn, discarding husks and silk; slice off kernels, discarding cobs (see recipe tip). Thinly slice cucumber crosswise into rounds. Trim and discard scallion roots and thinly slice, keeping whites and light greens separate from dark greens. Pour off any juices from kimchi to drain, then finely chop.

2. Make kimchi slaw

In a medium bowl, toss together carrots, cucumber, kimchi, rice wine vinegar, ½ tablespoon canola oil, and ⅛ teaspoon salt to combine. Set aside to pickle until Step 6.

3. Cook beef bulgogi

Pat beef dry with paper towel. Heat ½ tablespoon canola oil in a medium pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add bulgogi spice mix, beef, scallion whites and light greens, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Cook, breaking up, until browned, about 5 minutes. Using a slotted spoon, transfer to a plate, then cover with foil to keep warm (see recipe tip). Wipe pan clean and reserve, off heat, for Step 5.

4. Warm buns

While beef cooks, place 6 buns on a large piece of foil and loosely wrap to create a pouch. Save remaining buns for another recipe (we like stuffing them with scrambled eggs and scallion). Place in oven to warm through, 6–8 minutes.

5. Make cheesy corn

While buns warm, return pan from beef to medium-high heat with 1 tablespoon canola oil. When oil is shimmering, add corn and cook, stirring occasionally, until warmed through and bright yellow, 3 minutes. Remove pan from heat and stir in mozzarella, scallion dark greens, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired until cheese melts and coats corn.

6. Plate beef bulgogi buns

Drizzle pickling liquid from kimchi slaw over bulgogi beef (using a spoon to hold kimchi slaw back) and stir to combine, leaving slaw in bowl. Divide buns between serving plates. Spoon bulgogi beef into buns and top with kimchi slaw. Serve cheesy corn alongside. Enjoy!
