Beets are at their peak awesomeness during the autumn months and we couldn't be happier. These firm, earthy root vegetables come in different colors—ranging from yellow to red to candy-striped. They make the perfect crispy garnish for this warm bowl of chili.

USDA recommends cooking beef to 145° F.

1. Prepare Ingredients

Preheat oven to 400°F. Peel beets, halve, and slice as thinly as possible. Mince garlic. Drain black beans and kidney beans, then rinse both. Quarter lime. Pat beef dry with paper towel.

2. Bake Cornbread

In a large bowl, stir together cornbread mix and ½ cup water until fully combined. Divide evenly between tins, rehsaping if bent. Place on a baking sheet, transfer to oven, and bake until puffed and set, 10-15 minutes. Remove and set aside to cool for 2-3 minutes. Carefully invert and set aside until ready to serve. Increase oven temperature to 450°F.

3. Simmer Chili

While cornbread bakes, heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a medium pot over medium heat. When oil is shimmering, add spice mix, garlic, beef, and ½ teaspoon kosher salt and cook, breaking up with the back of a spoon, until meat loses its color, 3-4 minutes. Stir in crushed tomatoes. Increase heat to high and bring to a boil, then reduce heat to medium and simmer until thickened, 3-4 minutes.

4. Bake Beet Chips

Add beets to baking sheet from cornbread and toss with 1 tablespoon olive oil and ¼ teaspoon kosher salt. Arrange in a single layer, transfer to oven, and bake until crisp, about 15 minutes.

5. Thicken Chili

While beets bake, whisk together masa harina and ¼ cup water in a small bowl. Add to pot with chili over medium heat and stir until no lumps remain. Stir in black beans and kidney beans. Cover pot and cook until chili is thickened and flavors are melded, about 5 minutes more. Remove pot from heat. Taste and add salt and pepper as needed.

6. Plate Chili

Now for the fun part! Garnish chili with all the things: Cheddar, beet chips, and lime wedges. Use warm cornbread to soak up flavors and clean your bowl.
