Turkey Larb Bowls

with Mint, Peanuts, and Pickled Shallot

Larb is one of our favorite salads to order at Thai restaurants. Introduced to Thailand via its northern neighbor, Laos, the dish balances minced meat with punchy citrus, chiles, and herbs. Our ground turkey version brings the same tangy and spicy flavors with brown sugar, lime, Sriracha, and shallot. It's all garnished with fresh mint and crunchy peanuts, and served over rice to soak up the delectable sauce.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

The liquid from quick-pickling the shallot is also used to add tangy-sweet flavor to the turkey. You can skip using a slotted spoon and extra bowl if you're confident that you can hold the shallot back and pour off just the liquid—cook's choice!

To save time, try using a pair of kitchen scissors to cut all soy sauce packets open together.

USDA recommends cooking ground turkey to 160°F.

1. Cook rice

In a small pot, combine rice, ¾ cup water, and ¼ teaspoon salt, and bring to a boil over high heat. Stir once, reduce heat to medium low, cover pot, and simmer until water is fully absorbed, 10–12 minutes. Remove pot from heat and let stand, still covered, until Step 6.

2. Pickle shallot

While rice cooks, halve 1 lime; cut remaining lime into wedges for serving. Peel shallot and thinly slice into rings, then place in a small bowl. Add brown sugar, juice of 1 lime, 1 tablespoon water, and a pinch of salt; stir to combine. Set aside to pickle until Step 5.

3. Prepare remaining ingredients

Rinse remaining produce. Roughly chop or tear mint leaves, discarding stems. Trim and discard scallion roots and thinly slice crosswise on a diagonal, keeping whites and light greens separate from dark greens. Roughly chop peanuts, or leave in bag and gently crush with the bottom of a heavy pan.

4. Brown turkey

Heat 1 tablespoon canola oil in a medium pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add scallion whites and light greens; sauté, stirring, until fragrant, about 2 minutes. Add turkey and season with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Cook, breaking up, until meat is browned, about 5 minutes.

5. Finish turkey larb

While turkey cooks, use a slotted spoon to transfer pickled shallot to a separate small bowl, reserving shallot pickling liquid (see recipe tip). To pan with turkey, still over medium-high heat, add soy sauce (see recipe tip) and shallot pickling liquid. Simmer until liquid is reduced by half, 2–3 minutes more. Remove pan from heat. Stir in Sriracha (skip or use half for milder flavor), slaw mix, and half of mint to combine.

6. Plate turkey larb bowls

Fluff rice with a fork, then divide between roomy serving bowls. Top with turkey larb, pickled shallot, peanuts, scallion dark greens, and remaining mint. Serve with lime wedges for squeezing over, and dig in!
