Three-Cheese Grilled Cheese

with Rosemary-Balsamic Tomato Jam

Thanks to its trio of cheeses—mozzarella, provolone, and Cheddar—this rich, crispy grilled cheese is made even better when paired with a tangy tomato jam. As whole grape tomatoes simmer with rosemary, garlic, and balsamic vinegar, their juices begin to release and the jammy mixture infuses with flavor. On the side, shredded Brussels sprouts, spinach, and toasted pine nuts make a perfect fall salad.

You'll need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper
aluminum foil 8" medium pot
baking sheet

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

You may get more slices out of your boule than needed for the grilled cheese—we recommend toasting it for breakfast and topping with ricotta and jam.

Cooking with a sous chef? They can make the pine nut pouch in Step 1, whisk the dressing in Step 3, and assemble the sandwiches in Step 4.

Oven strengths vary, and nuts can burn quickly, so keep an eye on these as they roast.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Rinse all produce. Strip rosemary leaves, discarding stems, then mince. Cut each boule into ½-inch slices, enough to yield 8 slices total (see recipe tip). Mince garlic. Place a small piece of foil on a clean, dry surface. Add pine nuts to foil, fold edges up together, and crimp to seal pouch (see recipe tip).

2. Make tomato jam

In a medium pot, combine whole grape tomatoes, rosemary, garlic, half of balsamic vinegar (save remainder for Step 3), ¼ cup water, 2 teaspoons olive oil, and ½ teaspoon salt. Bring to a boil over high heat, then reduce to medium high. Simmer, stirring, until tomatoes begin to break down and soften, 5–6 minutes. Then, using the back of a spoon, press tomatoes to release juices; continue simmering until jammy, 5–6 minutes more.

3. Make salad

While jam simmers, in a large bowl (big enough for the salad), whisk remaining balsamic vinegar, 3 tablespoons olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired until combined. Pat spinach dry, then add to bowl with dressing, along with shredded Brussels sprouts. Wait to toss until ready to serve so the vegetables stay crisp.

4. Assemble grilled cheese

Arrange bread slices on a baking sheet. Drizzle olive oil over 1 side of bread slices. Bake until beginning to crisp, 4 minutes, then flip. Sprinkle mozzarella and provolone and Cheddar over plain sides of bread slices, dividing evenly. Top with rosemary-balsamic tomato jam. Place foil pouch with pine nuts alongside bread slices on baking sheet (see recipe tip). Bake until cheeses are melted, bread is golden, and pine nuts begin to toast, 3–4 minutes more.

5. Finish grilled cheese

Close sandwiches, pressing to adhere. Return to oven, with pine nuts still alongside grilled cheese, and bake until tops of sandwiches are toasted and pine nuts are light golden, 1–2 minutes more. Transfer sandwiches to cutting board.

6. Plate grilled cheese

Halve grilled cheese on a diagonal and transfer to serving plates. Toss spinach and Brussels sprout salad and garnish with toasted pine nuts; serve alongside three-cheese grilled cheese. Enjoy!
