Turkey Bolognese

with Butternut Squash and Mascarpone

In this hearty fall dinner, tender roasted butternut squash and grape tomatoes are tossed with mini penne noodles, whose outer ridges and hollow centers easily grab onto a quick-simmered Bolognese. It all comes together in a flash, with roasting, simmering, and boiling happening simultaneously—pull up your recipe in the Plated mobile app to take advantage of our built-in cooking timers and notifications.

- black pepper
- 10" large pot with lid
- aluminum foil
- baking sheet
- 12" large high-sided pan

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

Covering the water helps it boil faster and prevents it from evaporating before you're ready to cook the pasta.

Kitchen time-saver: Prep the basil together in one go, with a technique called chiffonade. Stack picked leaves, roll the stack up, then cut the roll crosswise into thin slices. Gently separate with your fingers, and voilà! Alternatively, for a more rustic look, have a kitchen helper tear the leaves by hand.

USDA recommends cooking ground turkey to 160°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Bring a large, covered pot of water to a boil over high heat (see recipe tip). Rinse all produce. Cut butternut squash cubes to ½-inch pieces, if needed. Thinly slice basil leaves, discarding stems (see recipe tip). Peel onion, halve, and thinly slice. Mince garlic. Line a baking sheet with aluminum foil.

2. Roast squash and tomatoes

On prepared baking sheet, toss squash with 1½ tablespoons olive oil, ¾ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired, then arrange in a single layer (a friend can help with this task). Roast until beginning to soften, about 10 minutes (move on to Step 3—but don't forget to come back!). Then, scatter over whole grape tomatoes and continue roasting until squash is lightly browned and tomatoes are softened, about 10 minutes more.

3. Brown turkey

While squash roasts, heat 1½ tablespoon olive oil in a large high-sided pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add onion and sauté, stirring, until softened, 3–4 minutes. Add garlic and sauté until fragrant, about 1 minute. Add turkey and season with 1 teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Cook, breaking up, until meat is browned, about 5 minutes.

4. Simmer Bolognese sauce

Add red wine to pan with turkey, still over medium-high heat. Cook, scraping up browned bits from bottom of pan, until liquid is mostly evaporated, 4–5 minutes. Add crushed tomatoes. Increase heat to high and bring to a boil, then reduce heat to medium and simmer until Bolognese is reduced and thickened, 5–7 minutes more.

5. Cook mini penne

While sauce simmers, season boiling water generously with salt. Stir in mini penne and cook until al dente, about 7 minutes. (P.S. This is a great time to set the table.) Then, drain penne and return to pot, off heat.

6. Plate turkey Bolognese

Once Bolognese has thickened, remove pan from heat and stir in mascarpone, half of basil, ¾ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired to combine. Add cooked mini penne and roasted squash and tomatoes, and toss to coat. Divide turkey Bolognese among serving plates. Garnish with remaining basil, and dig in!
