Butternut Squash and Black Bean Tacos

with Candied Pumpkin Seeds

We love putting a seasonal spin on tacos and this recipe is perfect for those crisp fall nights. Cumin and ancho chile–spiced butternut squash is roasted until tender, then mashed until mostly smooth. It's layered into corn tortillas with hearty black beans, creamy cabbage slaw, and sliced avocado. For a satisfying sweet crunch, candied pumpkin seeds are sprinkled over top.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Pumpkin seeds can burn quickly, so keep an eye on them and stir frequently as they toast.

Because avocado starts to brown rapidly once cut, it's smartest to wait until just before serving to prep it.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Rinse all produce. Drain and rinse black beans and pat dry with paper towel. Halve lime. Cut butternut squash into ¼-inch pieces, if needed. Finely chop cilantro leaves and stems. Mince garlic.

2. Roast squash and beans

On 1 half of baking sheet, toss squash with cumin, ancho chile powder (use half for less heat), 1 tablespoon olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Arrange in a single layer. On other half of baking sheet, toss black beans with garlic, 1 tablespoon olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Roast until squash is tender and beans are crisp, 16–18 minutes.

3. Make slaw and warm tortillas

While squash and beans roast, in a medium bowl, whisk together sour cream, juice of 1 lime, and half of cilantro. Add cabbage and ¼ teaspoon salt; toss to fully combine. Set slaw aside until ready to serve. After squash and beans have roasted for 10 minutes, stack tortillas and wrap loosely in foil, leaving a small opening in pouch for steam to escape. Place in oven (with squash and beans) to warm for 5–10 minutes.

4. Candy pumpkin seeds

While tortillas warm, heat a small nonstick pan over medium-high heat. Carefully hover your hand a few inches away—when you can easily feel heat, add pumpkin seeds. Toast, stirring, until golden, 2–3 minutes (see recipe tip). Add sugar and cook, stirring frequently, until sugar begins to melt and cling to pumpkin seeds, 2–3 minutes more. Transfer candied pumpkin seeds to a plate; season with salt and pepper as desired and set aside for serving.

5. Slice avocado and finish squash

Halve avocado and discard pit; carefully scoop out flesh, discarding skin, then thinly slice (see recipe tip). Once squash is tender, using a fork or potato masher, mash roasted squash on baking sheet until mostly smooth.

6. Plate tacos

Divide tortillas between serving plates. Spread each with mashed butternut squash, dividing evenly. Layer with black beans, slaw, and sliced avocado. Garnish butternut squash and black bean tacos with candied pumpkin seeds and remaining cilantro. Enjoy!
