Butter-Basted Tilapia

with Tarragon, Grapes, and Roasted Potatoes

Tonight's dinner gets an extra special touch with the addition of a homemade compound butter. Mash together softened butter, garlic, and tarragon, then dollop it over tilapia fillets as they cook for rich, tangy flavor. The licorice notes in the tarragon are a classic pairing for the roasted fennel in the dish. Crispy potatoes and tangy-sweet marinated grapes round out these elegant plates.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Unwrap butter, place in a small bowl, and set aside to soften at room temperature. Rinse all produce. Pat arugula dry with paper towel. Halve potatoes, then cut crosswise into ½-inch half-moons. Halve fennel bulb, then cut core out in a wedge shape and discard; slice fennel as thinly as possible. Halve grapes. Finely chop tarragon leaves, discarding stems. Mince garlic.

2. Roast potatoes and fennel

On a baking sheet, toss potatoes with ½ tablespoon olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Arrange in a single layer on 1 half of sheet. On other half, toss fennel with ½ tablespoon olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired; arrange in a single layer. Roast until potatoes are golden and tender and fennel is crisped and tender, 18–20 minutes.

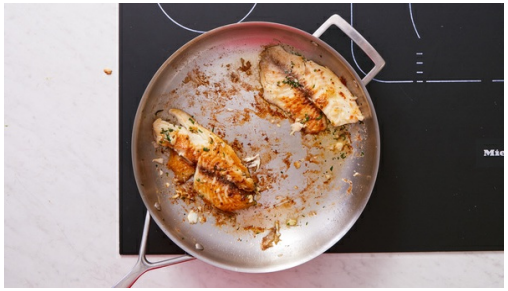

3. Make tarragon butter and marinate grapes

While vegetables roast, in a large bowl, whisk together white wine vinegar, 1½ tablespoons olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Add grapes, toss to coat, and set aside to marinate until Step 6. To bowl with softened butter, add garlic, half of tarragon, ⅛ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Mash using a fork until fully combined.

4. Sear tilapia

Pat tilapia dry with paper towel and season all over with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Heat 2 teaspoons olive oil in a medium nonstick pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add tilapia and sear until browned on bottom, 3–5 minutes (the fish will finish cooking in the next step).

5. Finish tilapia and vegetables

With pan still over medium-high heat, carefully flip tilapia (see recipe tip) and top fillets evenly with tarragon butter. Cook, spooning melted butter over tilapia, until tilapia is cooked through and opaque, 3–5 minutes more. Remove pan from heat. Once vegetables are roasted, add remaining tarragon to sheet; toss to coat.

6. Plate butter-basted tilapia

Transfer half of marinated grapes to a separate small bowl and reserve for garnish. To large bowl with remaining marinated grapes, add arugula and toss to coat, then divide between serving plates. Top with roasted potatoes and fennel. Using a fork, flake tilapia into large pieces and place on top of vegetables. Spoon over reserved marinated grapes. Enjoy!
