Chicken Bruschetta

with Balsamic and Shaved Parmesan

Get ready to transform a favorite Italian appetizer into a hearty, rustic feast. Bruschetta (pronounced: "broo-SKEH-tah") comes from the word bruscare, meaning "to roast over coals," referring to the toasted bread in the dish. It's typically rubbed with garlic and olive oil, but in this Popular Recipe, we're also using basil and tomatoes, plus roasted chicken, shaved Parmesan, and balsamic glaze.

Plated.

Ingredients

- 4 boneless chicken breasts
- ¼ ounce basil
- 2 pints grape tomatoes
- 1 lemon
- 1 red onion
- 3 cloves garlic
- ½ cup white wine
- 8 slices sourdough bread
- 5 ounces baby arugula
- 2 ounces shaved Parmesan cheese
- 4 packets balsamic glaze

You'll need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper
12" large ovenproof pan
baking sheet

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

Before preheating, make sure there's enough room in your oven for the large ovenproof pan and baking sheet to fit at the same time.

Searing the chicken in a dry pan might sound crazy, but there's good reason: The chicken's natural fat slowly melts away from beneath its skin, creating a crisp and golden crust without adding oil or butter. Sear it in batches, if needed.

The chicken might have a slight odor as a natural reaction to its vacuum packing. USDA recommends cooking chicken to 165°F.

1. Sear chicken

Preheat oven to 425°F (see recipe tip). Pat chicken dry with paper towel and sesaon all over with 1 teaspoon salt and pepper. Heat a large ovenproof pan over medium heat. Carefully hover your hand a few inches away from the pan—when you can easily feel heat, add chicken skin-side down (see recipe tip). Sear without moving until skin is golden brown and easily lifts from pan, 8–9 minutes. Transfer chicken to a plate, skin-side up. Reserve pan.

2. Prepare ingredients

While chicken sears, rinse all produce. Roughly tear or chop basil leaves, discarding stems (this is a great task for an eager helper!). Halve tomatoes. Halve lemon. Peel onion, halve, and thinly slice. Roughly chop garlic. Rub or brush a baking sheet with 2 tablespoons olive oil, then set aside until Step 5.

3. Make wine sauce and lemon dressing

In a small bowl, stir together white wine, garlic, 2 tablespoons olive oil, ⅛ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired to make sauce (good news for the under-21 crowd: The wine in the sauce cooks off!). In a large bowl, whisk together juice of 1 lemon, 2 tablespoons olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired until fully combined, then set aside.

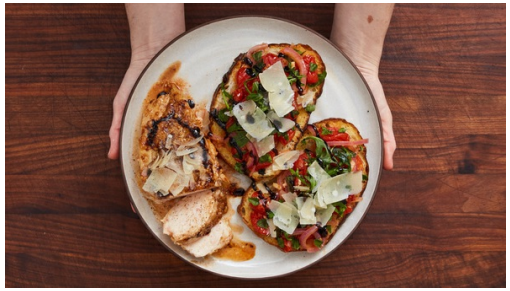

4. Roast chicken and vegetables

Return pan from chicken to medium heat and add half of wine sauce. Cook, scraping up any brown bits from bottom of pan, about 30 seconds. Add tomatoes and onion and toss to coat with sauce, about 1 minute more. Remove pan from heat. Nestle chicken into vegetables, skin-side up, and pour over remaining wine sauce. Transfer pan to oven and roast until chicken is cooked through and no longer pink, 10–12 minutes.

5. Toast sourdough

While chicken roasts, arrange sourdough in a single layer on prepared baking sheet. Drizzle over 1 teaspoon olive oil and sprinkle ⅛ teaspoon salt over each slice. Toast in oven (together with chicken) until golden brown and warmed through, 8–10 minutes. Once roasted, divide chicken among serving plates, leaving vegetables and sauce behind in pan. Stir basil into vegetables, then season with ¾ teaspoon salt and pepper.

6. Plate chicken bruschetta

Divide toasted sourdough among plates with chicken. Using a slotted spoon, pile vegetables onto sourdough—spoon the pan sauce that's left behind over chicken. Add arugula to bowl with lemon dressing and toss to coat, then pile on top of bruschetta. Garnish everything with Parmesan and balsamic glaze. Dig in!
