

Cheesy Corn Arepas

with Roasted Red Pepper Salsa

Arepas are a traditional Latin American dish of pancake-like patties made with corn flour and served plain or with toppings. Our homemade sweet and savory arepas are cooked 'til golden brown and finished with smoky red pepper salsa and queso fresco.

- 6" small pot
- 12" large nonstick pan

Recipe Tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us–you'll be glad you did!

The longer the pan is on the stove, the hotter it will get. The second batch may cook faster than the first.

1. Prepare Ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Halve limes. Rinse bell peppers and halve lengthwise, discarding seeds. Cut lengthwise into ¼-inch strips. Rinse cilantro and roughly chop leaves, discarding stems. Halve avocado and discard pit. Using a spoon, carefully scoop out flesh onto a large plate, discarding skin, and thinly slice. Drizzle juice of half lime over avocado and season with salt and pepper as desired.

2. Roast Bell Peppers

On a baking sheet, toss bell peppers with 1 tablespoon olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Arrange in an even layer and roast until peppers are softened and begin to char, 15-18 minutes.

3. Make Arepa Batter

While peppers roast, heat 1½ cups milk and butter in a small pot over medium-high heat. Cook until small bubbles form around the surface and butter melts, 2-3 minutes. While milk heats, in a large bowl, stir together corn, masa harina, sugar, and mozzarella. Add warmed milk mixture and ¾ teaspoon salt to bowl with corn mixture and whisk to combine. Set aside to stiffen, about 5 minutes. Use remaining milk for your morning coffee.

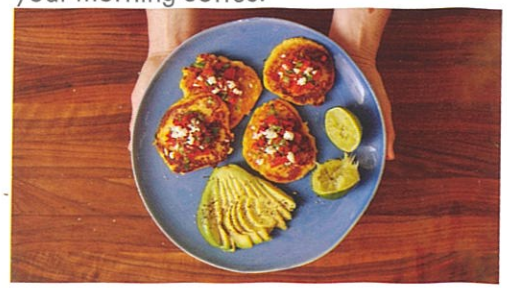

4. Make Salsa

Remove bell peppers from oven and set aside until cool enough to handle. Once cooled, roughly chop bell peppers. Add to a medium bowl with juice of remaining 1½ limes and cilantro. Add 2 tablespoons olive oil and stir to combine.

5. Cook Arepas

Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a large nonstick pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add in ¼ cup arepa batter at a time, leaving space between each arepa and working in batches if needed. Flatten batter slightly with the back of a spoon or spatula, then sear until browned and cooked through, about 2 minutes per side (see Recipe Tip).

6. Plate Arepas

Plate arepas and top with red pepper salsa and queso fresco. Serve with avocado and dig into your gorgeous feast!
