Cavatappi alla Norma

with Roasted Eggplant and Whipped Ricotta

Sicilian pasta alla Norma gets its name either from a popular Italian opera, or for the cuisine's norms, or traditions (in this case, the frequent use of tomatoes, eggplant, ricotta, and basil). Here, we combine slow-roasted eggplant with a simmered grape tomato sauce, then fold in cavatappi, a corkscrew-shaped pasta. Whipped ricotta is dolloped over each serving for a luxurious finish.

MEALS WORTH MAKING

Ingredients

- 2 eggplants
- 1½ pints grape tomatoes
- 2 yellow onions
- 3 cloves garlic
- ½ teaspoon crushed red pepper
- 1 can tomato purée
- 1 pound cavatappi
- 4 ounces ricotta cheese
- 1 parchment paper

You'll need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper 10" large pot
baking sheet
12" large high-sided ovenproof pan

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

After the sauce simmers in the oven, the pan will be extremely hot. Be extra careful, and use potholders or oven mitts when handling.

While it cooks, the pasta releases starches into the boiling water. Adding some reserved pasta water to the sauce in Step 6 will help it cling to the noodles.

The crushed garlic will infuse the sauce with flavor, but won't be pleasant to bite into. We recommend discarding it before adding the eggplant and pasta.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Bring a large pot of water to a boil over high heat. Rinse all produce. Halve eggplants lengthwise; cut crosswise into ¼-inch half-moons, discarding ends. Halve grape tomatoes. Peel onions, halve, and thinly slice. Using the flat side of a knife, gently crush garlic cloves.

2. Roast eggplant

Line a baking sheet with parchment paper. Add eggplant and toss with ¼ cup olive oil, ¾ teaspoon salt, and black pepper as desired—this is a great task for a helper. Arrange in a single layer and roast until browned and very tender, 14–16 minutes.

3. Make grape tomato sauce

While eggplant roasts, heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a large high-sided ovenproof pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add onions and crushed garlic; sauté, stirring, until soft. Stir in crushed red pepper (skip or use half for less heat), tomato purée, and grape tomatoes. Transfer pan to oven and cook until thickened, about 10 minutes. Carefully remove from oven and set aside (see recipe tip).

4. Boil cavatappi

While sauce cooks, season boiling water generously with salt. Stir in cavatappi and cook until al dente, about 7 minutes. Reserve 1 cup pasta cooking water, then drain and set aside (see recipe tip).

5. Whip ricotta

While pasta cooks, in a small bowl, whisk together ricotta and 2 teaspoons olive oil until light and fluffy—another great task for a kitchen helper. Season with salt and black pepper as desired.

6. Finish and plate cavatappi

Remove and discard crushed garlic from pan with sauce (see recipe tip) and place over medium heat. Stir in roasted eggplant, cavatappi, ½ teaspoon salt, and black pepper as desired. Adding 2 tablespoons at a time, stir in reserved pasta water until sauce is silky and clings to noodles. Divide cavatappi alla Norma among serving bowls and top with whipped ricotta. Dig in!
