1. Prepare Ingredients

Preheat oven to 400°F. Rinse all produce. Roughly chop spinach. Halve carrots lengthwise and cut crosswise into ¼-inch slices. Break cauliflower into ½-inch florets. Rinse black beans. Pat beef dry with paper towel. Stack tortillas and wrap in foil.

2. Sauté Vegetables

Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add carrots and cauliflower and sauté until softened and beginning to brown, about 5 minutes. Add spice mix and cook, stirring, until fragrant, about 1 minute. Meanwhile, place tortillas in oven to warm for 5-10 minutes.

3. Cook Filling

Add beef and 1 tablespoon olive oil to pan with vegetables. Season with ½ teaspoon kosher salt and pepper and cook, breaking up with the back of a spoon, until meat is browned and vegetables are very tender, 3-4 minutes. Remove pan from heat. Stir in as much hot sauce as desired, ½ cup salsa, spinach, and black beans.

4. Assemble Enchiladas

Place warmed tortillas on a clean dry surface. Add about ½ cup filling to center of each and roll into a cylinder. Place seam-side down in tins, reshaping if bent. Alternatively, place in a medium baking dish. Top with any remaining filling. Spoon over remaining salsa, then sprinkle over cheese mix, dividing evenly (see Recipe Tip).

5. Bake Enchiladas

Transfer enchiladas to oven and bake until warmed through and cheese is melted, 8-10 minutes.

6. Plate Enchiladas

Serve enchiladas family-style and enjoy the well-deserved cheese fest!
