Beef Kibbeh

with Tomato-Herb Salsa and Creamy Feta

These Middle Eastern–inspired meatballs are lacquered with harissa after roasting for a smoky, spicy finish. The salsa—a combination of tomato, parsley, onion, and tangy ground sumac—is a bright, juicy counter to the meatballs. Pile everything over warm naan and drizzle with a creamy feta sauce for a dish that hits all the flavor high notes.

You'll need

- olive oil
- 1 egg
- kosher salt
- black pepper
- aluminum foil
- baking sheet

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Marinating the onion first mellows its pungent bite. It also flavors the lemon juice for a more delicious salsa.

Don't worry if some of the harissa glaze drips off the kibbeh as they roast. They'll still be delicious.

USDA recommends cooking ground beef to 160°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Rinse all produce. Roughly chop grape tomatoes. Roughly chop parsley leaves and stems (the stems are actually quite tender, so we've kept them for extra flavor). Halve lemon. Mince garlic. Peel onion, cut into small dice, and place in a large bowl with juice of ½ lemon. Set aside to marinate until Step 3 (see recipe tip). Line a baking sheet with foil.

2. Form and roast kibbeh

In a separate large bowl, combine za'atar, garlic, 1 egg, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Pat beef dry with paper towel and add to bowl. Using your hands, mix well; form into 6 equal egg-shaped patties, 1½ inches thick. Transfer to prepared baking sheet, spacing apart as much as possible, and roast until slightly browned, 12 minutes (they'll finish cooking in Step 5).

3. Make salsa and creamy feta

While kibbeh roast, to bowl with onion, add sumac, grape tomatoes, parsley, ½ tablespoon olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired and toss to combine. Set aside. In a medium bowl, whisk together feta, sour cream, juice of remaining lemon, ½ tablespoon water, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired to combine. Set aside until ready to serve.

4. Make harissa glaze

In a small bowl, whisk together harissa and 1½ tablespoons olive oil to combine. Wrap naan in foil.

5. Finish kibbeh and warm naan

After kibbeh have roasted for 12 minutes, remove from oven and brush with harissa glaze—it's a bit spicy, so feel free to use less (see recipe tip). Return kibbeh to oven, along with naan, and roast until kibbeh are cooked through and naan is warm, 3–4 minutes.

6. Plate beef kibbeh

Unwrap naan, tear into small pieces, and divide between serving plates, along with beef kibbeh and tomato-herb salsa. Serve with creamy feta sauce. Dig in!
