Chicken and Swiss Chard Tacos with Chipotle Crema

Total Time: 35-45 minutes Calories per Serving: 600

Serves: 2 people

Chipotle is a small pepper dried by a smoking process, giving it a dark color and a smoky flavor. The type used here is canned in adobo—a spicy red sauce made of ground chiles, herbs, and vinegar.

USDA recommends cooking ground chicken to 160° F.

1. Prepare Ingredients

Preheat oven or toaster oven to 400°F. Rinse all produce. Thinly slice Swiss chard crosswise, keeping leaves and stems separate. Cut tomato into ½-inch dice. Roughly chop garlic. Halve lime. Finely chop chipotle. Pat chicken dry with paper towel.

2. Brown Chicken

Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a medium pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add chicken, spice mix, ¼ teaspoon kosher salt, and pepper and cook, breaking up with the back of a spoon, until meat loses its color, about 8 minutes (see Recipe Tip). Using a slotted spoon, transfer to a medium bowl and set aside.

3. Warm Tortillas

While chicken browns, stack tortillas, wrap in foil, and place in oven or toaster oven to warm for 5-10 minutes.

4. Make Chipotle Crema

While tortillas warm, combine juice of 1 lime, as much chipotle as desired, mayonnaise, and ½ of yogurt in a small bowl. Taste and add salt as needed. Save remaining yogurt to enjoy at breakfast.

5. Sauté Swiss Chard

Place pan from chicken over medium heat. When pan is just smoking, add Swiss chard stems, tomato, and garlic and sauté, scraping the bottom of pan occasionally, until stems are soft, about 5 minutes. Add Swiss chard leaves and sauté until wilted and tender, about 3 minutes more. Return chicken to pan and stir to combine. Taste and add more salt as needed.

6. Plate Tacos

Divide tortillas evenly between 2 plates. Top with chicken and Swiss chard mixture. Dollop over chipotle crema and serve.

RECIPE TIPS

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Rinse chicken and pat dry with paper towel. A slight odor is a natural reaction to vacuum packing.

Chicken begins to brown when the pan is hot enough to expel its moisture. Be sure to wait until the oil is shimmering before adding your meat. If it's not hot enough, the chicken will absorb the oil instead of cook in it.
