Chicken-Avocado Burgers

with Lemon Aioli and Sautéed Green Beans

A fan-favorite recipe returns! Double the avocado makes tonight's Popular Recipe doubly delicious. Here, chicken burgers are made with chopped avocado and a little garlic, then piled onto toasted brioche buns with lemon aioli and more creamy avocado. Tender sautéed green beans, finished with flaky Maldon sea salt, make a simple, colorful side.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

Try rubbing 1 teaspoon olive oil between your hands before forming the patties—it'll help keep the chicken from sticking to your fingers.

Our preferred cooking method for this recipe saves on cleanup by sautéing green beans, searing burgers, and toasting buns in the same pan. To save on time, start searing the burgers, then grab a separate large pan to cook the green beans simultaneously.

The chicken might have a slight odor as a natural reaction to its vacuum packing. USDA recommends cooking ground chicken to 160°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Slice buns open horizontally, if they arrived whole. Rinse green beans and trim and discard ends (line up the ends to cut them all together). Halve avocados and discard pits. Using a spoon, carefully scoop out flesh, discarding skins. Roughly chop 1 avocado and place in a large bowl for making burgers; thinly slice remaining avocado and set aside until ready to serve. Halve lemons. Mince garlic.

2. Form burgers

Add half of garlic, ½ teaspoon kosher salt, and pepper as desired to bowl with chopped avocado and stir to combine. Add chicken (see recipe tip). Using your hands, mix well, then form into 4 equal patties, about 1 inch thick. Place burgers on a plate, cover with plastic wrap, and chill in refrigerator for at least 5 minutes (this will help them hold their shape as they cook).

3. Sauté green beans

While burgers chill, heat 2 tablespoons olive oil in a large nonstick pan over medium heat (see Recipe Tip). When oil is shimmering, add green beans and sauté, stirring, until bright green and tender, about 5 minutes. Remove pan from heat. Squeeze over juice of 1 lemon and season with ½ teaspoon kosher salt and pepper as desired. Transfer green beans to serving plates. Wipe pan clean for the next step.

4. Sear burgers

Return pan from green beans to medium heat with 2 tablespoons olive oil. When oil is shimmering, add burgers, working in batches and adding more oil as needed. Sear until browned on bottom, 5 minutes. Flip, cover pan, and continue searing until cooked through and no longer pink, 5 minutes more (skip ahead to make aioli, but don't forget to come back!). Transfer burgers to a plate and set aside. Wipe pan clean for toasting buns.

5. Make aioli and toast buns

While burgers sear, in a medium bowl, stir together mayonnaise, Greek yogurt, juice of remaining lemon, and remaining garlic. Season with ¼ teaspoon kosher salt and pepper as desired and set aside. Arrange buns cut-side down in pan from burgers over medium heat, working in batches as needed, and toast until light golden and warmed through, 2–3 minutes. Transfer to plates with green beans.

6. Plate chicken-avocado burgers

Sprinkle Maldon salt over sautéed green beans (a little goes a long way—taste and add more as desired). Layer bun bottoms with chicken-avocado burgers, then sliced avocado, then lemon aioli. Finish with bun tops and dig in!
