Brie-Stuffed Chicken

with Cherry-Rosemary Sauce and Haricots Verts

Butterflying chicken is a great technique for stuffing the meat with a variety of fillings. Our cheffy tips: Use a sharp knife and work slowly to slice through each breast horizontally, and you'll have restaurant-worthy results in no time. We stuff with creamy Brie, dredge in egg and panko breadcrumbs, and shallow-fry until the crust is golden and crispy and the cheese is melted.

- 10" medium pan
- baking sheet

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Sealing the edge of each chicken breast with a little flour helps the cheese stay inside during cooking. Don't worry if some cheese oozes out, though—the chicken will still be delicious!

The chicken might have a slight odor as a natural reaction to its vacuum packing. USDA recommends cooking chicken to 165°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F. Cut Brie round into 6 thin slices, place on a plate, and chill in refrigerator for the next step. In a small bowl, measure out ½ teaspoon flour and reserve for the next step. Place remaining flour on a large plate and season with ¼ teaspoon salt. In a large shallow bowl or baking dish, whisk 1 egg. Place breadcrumbs on a separate large plate. Pat chicken dry with paper towel.

2. Stuff chicken

Using a sharp knife, slice chicken open horizontally, keeping 1 edge intact, to resemble open books. Season chicken all over with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Stuff Brie into chicken. Using your finger, moisten inner edge of stuffed chicken with water, then sprinkle with reserved ½ teaspoon flour (see recipe tip). Close to seal in cheese.

3. Dredge and cook chicken

Keeping chicken closed so cheese stays inside, dredge chicken in remaining flour, gently shaking off excess. Dip in egg, allowing excess to drip off. Dredge in breadcrumbs, pressing to adhere. Heat 2 tablespoons olive oil in a medium pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add chicken; sear until crust is browned, cheese is melted, and chicken is cooked through, 5–7 minutes per side. Transfer to a paper towel–lined plate; reserve pan.

4. Roast haricots verts

While chicken cooks, rinse haricots verts, then trim and discard ends (line up the ends to trim them all at once). Roughly chop dried cherries. Peel shallot and halve, then thinly slice 1 half; mince remainder. On a baking sheet, toss haricots verts and sliced shallot with 1 tablespoon olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Arrange in a single layer; roast until haricots verts are bright green and tender, 8–10 minutes.

5. Make cherry-rosemary sauce

While haricots verts roast, rinse pan from chicken and wipe clean; place over medium heat with 2 teaspoons olive oil. When oil is shimmering, add dried rosemary and minced shallot; cook, stirring frequently, until beginning to brown, 5 minutes. Add red wine, Worcestershire, dried cherries, and 2 tablespoons water. Increase heat to medium high; cook until reduced by half, 2–3 minutes more. Remove pan from heat; stir in butter to melt.

6. Plate Brie-stuffed chicken

Transfer Brie-stuffed chicken to serving plates, along with roasted haricots verts and shallot. Taste cherry-rosemary sauce and season with salt and pepper as desired, then spoon over chicken. Enjoy!
