Curried Cauliflower and Quinoa Bowls

with Coconut-Braised Kale and Chickpeas

Masala is a catchall term used throughout India to indicate a blend of spices—garam masala refers to a popular blend of clove, cinnamon, cardamom, coriander, cumin, and nutmeg. Whisked into oil, it becomes the perfect rub for coating tonight's roasted cauliflower florets. They're tossed with fresh lime juice and served over cilantro-laced quinoa with creamy kale and chickpeas.

Coconut milk solids naturally separate from the liquids during transit. No worries; it will come together during cooking. Vigorously shake the can before opening, or pierce the solids with a spoon before pouring into the pan to avoid a messy splatter.

1. Cook quinoa

Preheat oven to 450°F. In a small pot, combine quinoa, 1⅓ cups water, and ½ teaspoon salt. Bring to a boil over high heat, then reduce heat to medium low, cover pot, and simmer until water is evaporated and quinoa is tender, about 15 minutes. Remove pot from heat and set aside, still covered.

2. Prepare ingredients

While quinoa cooks, rinse all produce. Cut cauliflower to ½-inch florets, if needed. Trim and discard long kale stems, then thinly slice leaves crosswise. Roughly chop cilantro leaves, discarding stems. Halve 1 lime; cut remaining lime into wedges for serving. Peel shallot, halve, and thinly slice. Mince garlic (see recipe tip). Rinse chickpeas.

3. Roast cauliflower

In a large bowl, whisk together garam masala, 1 tablespoon canola oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Add cauliflower and toss to coat, then place on a baking sheet, arranging in a single layer. Roast until slightly browned, 10–12 minutes. Then, remove cauliflower from oven, sprinkle over almonds, and continue roasting until almonds are toasted, 2–3 minutes more. Remove from oven and squeeze over juice of 1 lime.

4. Braise kale and chickpeas

While cauliflower roasts, heat 1 tablespoon canola oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add shallot and garlic and sauté, stirring, until soft and fragrant, about 3 minutes. Add kale and chickpeas and sauté until kale is wilted, about 3 minutes. Season with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper. Add coconut milk (see recipe tip), increase heat to medium high, and simmer until liquid is slightly reduced, 3–4 minutes.

5. Finish quinoa

Once quinoa has finished cooking, stir in half of cilantro to combine. Cover again to keep warm until ready to serve.

6. Plate cauliflower bowls

Divide cilantro quinoa between serving bowls. Top with curried cauliflower and coconut-braised kale and chickpeas. Garnish with remaining cilantro, and serve with lime wedges for squeezing over. Dig in!
