Curried Beef

with Potatoes, Carrots, and Apple Chutney

Similar to shepherd's pie, this British pub–inspired dish, called hotpot, layers potatoes on top of seasoned beef and vegetables. Instead of a mash, the spuds here are sliced and roasted until crisp and brown. Fragrant, warm-spiced tikka masala curry paste makes this dish feel even more comforting. A tart, juicy apple chutney adds a welcome bright note.

Ingredients

- 1 russet potato
- 4 ounces carrots
- ⅛ ounce parsley
- 1 yellow onion
- 1 vegetable bouillon cube
- 12 ounces ground beef
- 1 tablespoon tikka masala curry paste
- 1 Gala apple
- 1 tablespoon apple cider vinegar
- 1 packet apricot preserves
- 1 parchment paper

You'll need

- olive oil
- kosher salt
- black pepper
- baking sheet
- 10" medium high-sided ovenproof pan
- 6" small pot

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Feel free to slice the carrots as usual—we like to cut them on a diagonal, also known as the bias cut, for a cheffy touch and elegant presentation.

The potato slices create a lid on the curried beef so it won't lose too much moisture as it bakes. This also helps them become even more browned and crisp.

USDA recommends cooking ground beef to 160°F.

1. Bake potato slices

Preheat oven to 450°F. Rinse all produce. Cut potato crosswise into thin rounds. Line a baking sheet with parchment paper. Add potato and toss with 1 tablespoon olive oil, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Arrange in a single layer, spacing apart, and bake until lightly browned, 15–20 minutes.

2. Prepare ingredients

While potato slices bake, halve carrots lengthwise, then cut crosswise on a diagonal into ½-inch pieces (see recipe tip). Finely chop parsley leaves and stems (the stems are actually quite tender, so we've kept them for even more flavor and aroma). Peel onion and cut into small dice. In a small bowl, combine bouillon cube and 1 cup water and, using a fork, gently mash to dissolve cube. Set broth aside for the next step.

3. Cook vegetables and beef

Heat ½ tablespoon olive oil in a medium high-sided ovenproof pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add carrots and onion; cook, stirring, until softened, 4–5 minutes. Pat beef dry with paper towel, add to pan, and season with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Cook, breaking up, until browned, about 5 minutes. Add curry paste and cook, stirring, until fragrant, 2 minutes. Then, stir in broth to combine.

4. Bake curried beef

Increase heat under pan with beef to high and bring to a boil; cook, stirring, 1–2 minutes more. Remove pan from heat. Once baked, using tongs or a fork, carefully arrange potato slices over beef in pan so they overlap slightly (see recipe tip). Transfer to oven and bake until potatoes are brown and crisp and flavors have melded, 10–15 minutes.

5. Make apple chutney

While curried beef bakes, peel apple, slice off rounded sides, and cut into small dice, discarding core. Heat 1 teaspoon olive oil in a small pot over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add apple; sauté, stirring, until beginning to soften, 3–4 minutes. Stir in apple cider vinegar, apricot preserves, and ¼ cup water. Cook, stirring, until slightly thickened, 3–5 minutes more. Remove pot from heat and season with ¼ teaspoon salt.

6. Plate curried beef

Divide curried beef and potatoes between serving plates. Top with apple chutney. Garnish with parsley and dig in!
