Feta-Stuffed Burgers

with Creamy Dill Sauce

We love the salty tang crumbled feta adds to the beef burgers in tonight's recipe. After they sear, the patties are stacked on toasted buns with a cool sour cream and dill sauce. They then sear again, grilled cheese–style, until the whole surface of the bun is crisp and golden. It's a Greek twist on a diner classic that works so, so well…you'll want to griddle all your sandwiches this way from now on.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Burger patties tend to puff up when cooked. Creating a shallow dimple in the center of each helps them cook evenly and keep their shape.

Weighing the closed burgers down in the pan, just like grilled cheese, intensifies the heat underneath and creates golden, crisp edges. To save time, feel free to skip this step; the burgers will still be delicious.

USDA recommends cooking ground beef to 160°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Rinse all produce. Slice buns open horizontally, if they arrived whole. Finely chop dill leaves, discarding stems. Roughy chop tomato. Mince garlic. Peel shallot, halve, and mince half for burgers; thinly slice remainder and place in a large bowl with red wine vinegar and ⅛ teaspoon salt. Toss to combine and set aside to pickle until Step 4.

2. Form feta burgers

In a medium bowl, combine feta, minced shallot, half of garlic, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Pat beef dry with paper towel and add to bowl. Using your hands, mix well, then form into 2 equal patties, about 4 inches wide. Using your thumb, create a dimple on top of each (see recipe tip).

3. Sear feta burgers

Heat 1 teaspoon olive oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add burgers and sear, without flipping, until browned on bottom, about 4 minutes. Flip and continue searing until browned and medium rare, 3–4 minutes more. Transfer burgers to a plate and set aside to rest. Wipe pan clean and reserve, off heat, for Step 5.

4. Make creamy dill sauce

While burgers sear, roughly chop cucumber. In a small bowl, whisk together sour cream, half of dill, 2 teaspoons shallot pickling liquid (not sliced shallot), remaining garlic, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Set aside for the next step.

5. Toast buns and finish burgers

Place buns cut-side down in pan from burgers over medium heat. Toast until light golden and warmed through, 2–3 minutes, then flip. Remove pan from heat. Flip bottom buns in pan and add feta burgers. Spread creamy dill sauce over top buns; close burgers. Place pan over medium-high heat; top with a medium heavy pan or large plate to weight down, and cook until golden, 3–4 minutes (see recipe tip). Transfer to serving plates.

6. Plate feta-stuffed burgers

To bowl with pickled shallot, add 1 tablespoon olive oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper and whisk to combine. Add tomato, cucumber, and remaining dill to bowl and toss to combine. Serve cucumber-tomato salad with feta-stuffed burgers. Dig in!
