French Onion Soup Burgers

with Gruyère and Arugula

This Popular Recipe takes your dinner to the next level with an unexpected, yet extremely satisfying pairing: French onion soup and burgers. Hearty beef patties are slathered with melty Gruyère and a sweet caramelized onion gravy simmered in rich beef stock. The uneven surface of the toasted English muffins make them perfect for soaking up the tangy mustard and gravy.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Burger patties tend to puff up when cooked. Creating a shallow dimple in the center of each helps them cook evenly and keep their shape.

The uneven surface of English muffins can cause them to stick to the pan. If you're having trouble with this, grab a separate nonstick pan to toast the buns separately.

USDA recommends cooking ground beef to 160°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Rinse all produce. Pat arugula dry with paper towel. Strip thyme leaves, discarding stems (this is a great task for a kitchen helper). Halve lemon. Peel onions, halve, and thinly slice. In a large bowl, whisk together juice of 1 lemon (or start with a little, then taste and add more as desired), 2 tablespoons olive oil, and ⅛ teaspoon salt. Set aside for Step 6.

2. Caramelize onions

Heat butter in a large pan over medium-high heat. When butter is foamy, add thyme and onions and cook, stirring occasionally, until onions are light brown and softened, 7–8 minutes. Then, add 2 tablespoons water and reduce heat to medium. Cook, stirring continuously to keep them from sticking, until onions are golden brown and very soft, about 6 minutes more.

3. Form burgers

While onions cook, pat beef dry with paper towel and season with 1 teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Using your hands, mix well, then form into 4 equal patties, about ½-inch thick. Using your thumb, create a dimple on top of each (see recipe tip). Place burgers on a plate and set aside until Step 5.

4. Make onion gravy

Add flour to pan with onions, still over medium heat, and cook, stirring vigorously to prevent burning, until flour is no longer visible, about 2 minutes. Add beef stock and ½ cup water and bring to a boil over high heat. Reduce heat to medium high and simmer, stirring occasionally, until gravy is thickened and reduced by ⅔, 2–3 minutes more. Remove pan from heat. Season with ¼ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired.

5. Sear burgers

Heat 1 teaspoon olive oil in a separate large pan over medium heat. When oil is shimmering, add burgers and sear, without flipping, until browned on bottom, 4 minutes. Flip and continue searing until browned and medium rare, 3–4 minutes. Spoon onion gravy over burgers, then top with Gruyère. Cover pan; cook until cheese is melted, 1–2 minutes more. Transfer burgers to a plate. Wipe pan clean for the next step.

6. Finish and plate burgers

Add arugula to bowl with dressing. Toss to coat. Split English muffins open horizontally, then add cut-side down to pan from burgers over medium heat. Toast until light golden, about 2 minutes (see recipe tip). Spread mustard over cut sides. Layer with French onion soup burgers and any remaining onion gravy. Add arugula to bowl with dressing, toss to coat, and serve with burgers. Dig in!
