Fajita Fish Tacos

with Lime Crema and Avocado

Fish tacos were born along the beaches of Mexico's Baja California. Tonight's dinner places you right in that sunny spot, where the combination of fresh fish, flour tortillas, crunchy cabbage, and tangy crema is the only way to make a taco. In Baja they're often fried, but here they're generously seasoned with fajita spices and seared, adding a welcome kick.

MEALS WORTH MAKING

Ingredients

⅛ ounce cilantro
1 lime
1 tomato
1 scallion
1 jalapeño
½ cup shredded green cabbage
2 ounces sour cream
6 flour tortillas
10 ounces tilapia
1 teaspoon fajita spice mix
1 avocado

You'll need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper
aluminum foil
12" large nonstick pan

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

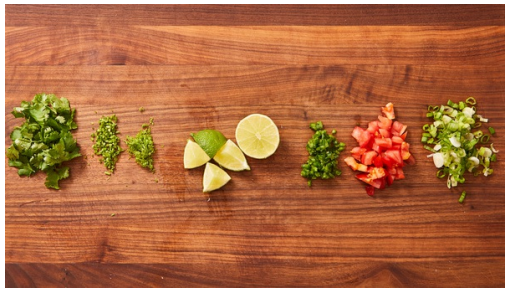

The skin of the lime (and other citrus fruits) is home to the highest concentration of aromatic oils, so chefs use zest to add bright flavor and a little texture. It's easier and safer to zest the lime before cutting and juicing.

Always wash your knife, board, and hands after cutting spicy chiles.

USDA recommends cooking fish to 145°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 350°F. Rinse all produce. Pick cilantro leaves; finely chop stems. If you have a zester and want to infuse your crema with even more flavor, zest up to ½ of lime (see recipe tip). Halve lime and cut 1 half into wedges for serving; set aside remainder. Cut tomato into small dice. Trim and discard scallion root; thinly slice. Halve jalapeño lengthwise; using a knife tip, discard seeds and stem, then mince (see recipe tip).

2. Make tomato slaw

In a medium bowl, combine cabbage, cilantro stems, tomato, scallion, up to half of jalapeño (skip or use half for less heat), 1 squeeze lime juice (be sure to save this lime half for Step 3!), and ½ tablespoon olive oil. Save remaining jalapeño for another recipe—it's great for spicing up a margarita. Season with ¼ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired, and toss to combine. Set aside until ready to serve.

3. Make crema and warm tortillas

In a small bowl, stir together sour cream, 1 squeeze lime juice (same ½ lime from Step 2), lime zest (if using), 1 tablespoon water, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired to combine. Set aside until ready to serve. Stack tortillas, wrap in foil, and place in oven to warm until Step 6.

4. Season fish

Pat tilapia dry with paper towel; cut lengthwise into 1 inch–wide strips. Season all over with fajita spice mix, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired.

5. Cook fish

Heat 2 tablespoons olive oil in a large nonstick pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, carefully add tilapia, standing back in case hot oil splatters. Sear until spices are golden and fish is cooked through and opaque, 3–5 minutes per side. Remove pan from heat.

6. Plate fish tacos

While fish cooks, halve avocado and discard pit; carefully scoop out flesh, discarding skin, then cut into small dice. Divide warmed tortillas between serving plates. Top with fajita-spiced tilapia, avocado, and tomato slaw. Drizzle over lime crema and garnish with cilantro leaves. Serve with lime wedges for squeezing over. Dig in!
