Dijon-Balsamic Salmon

with Herbed Potatoes and Arugula

We love how bright Dijon mustard blends seamlessly with thick, tangy-sweet balsamic glaze for a double-punch of flavor here. Enlist a friend to handle the whisking (we've identified a few other good spots for helping hands, too). A spoonful of the glaze becomes the dressing for peppery arugula and herb-roasted potatoes; the rest is brushed over roasting salmon fillets for a sticky, glossy coat.

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Got help in the kitchen tonight? Your sous chef can use their hands to separate the onion layers in Step 1, and toss and spread the vegetables in Step 2 before roasting. Then, they can whisk the glaze in Step 4 and toss the salad in Step 5.

The Italian herb blend in this recipe is a mix of dried rosemary, oregano, basil, marjoram, and thyme. It adds aromatic flavor to roasted potatoes.

Your salmon is finished cooking when it flakes easily with a fork or a thin knife inserted into the fish meets no resistance. USDA recommends cooking fish to 145°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F (see recipe tip). Rinse all produce. Cut potatoes into ½-inch pieces. Peel onions and quarter; halve each wedge crosswise, then separate layers. Line 2 baking sheets with foil.

2. Roast potatoes and onions

On 1 prepared baking sheet, toss potatoes and onions with Italian dried herb blend (see recipe tip), 2 tablespoons olive oil, ¾ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Arrange in a single layer and roast until onions are tender and potatoes begin to brown and soften, 18–20 minutes.

3. Roast salmon

While vegetables roast, pat salmon dry with paper towel and arrange skin-side down on other prepared baking sheet. Season tops of fish with ¾ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired, then drizzle over 1 tablespoon olive oil and rub in seasoning. Roast (with vegetables) until mostly opaque and cooked through, about 8 minutes—it'll finish cooking in the next step.

4. Make glaze and finish salmon

While salmon roasts, in a large bowl, whisk together Dijon mustard, balsamic glaze, and ¼ cup olive oil. Scoop 1½ tablespoons Dijon-balsamic glaze into a small bowl; reserve remainder for the next step. After 8 minutes of salmon roasting, carefully brush tops of fish with 1½ tablespoons glaze from small bowl (or spoon over and gently spread). Continue roasting until salmon is completely opaque and cooked through, 2–3 minutes more.

5. Toss salad

While salmon and vegetables finish roasting, to large bowl with remaining glaze, add golden raisins, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Pat arugula dry with paper towel and add to bowl. Once roasted, add potatoes and onion to bowl, and toss to combine.

6. Plate salmon

Divide herbed potatoes and arugula among serving plates. Top with Dijon-balsamic salmon and dig in!
