Fontina and Onion Jam Panini

with Smoked Paprika Mayo and Kohlrabi

These spectacular panini are a fantastic upgrade to your everyday grilled cheese, with tangy-sweet red onion jam, smoky mayo spread, and nutty Fontina cheese. Baking the panini lets you toast them both at once, a hands-free method that's as easy as it is cheesy. Peak-season kohlrabi, a bulb-shaped vegetable, tastes like a cross between cabbage and broccoli. It adds excellent crunch to the spinach salad here.

Ingredients

- 1 kohlrabi
- 1 Gala apple
- 2 red onions
- 3 packets mayonnaise
- 1 spice mix
  - ¼ teaspoon chipotle powder
  - ¼ teaspoon smoked paprika
- ⅛ ounce thyme
- 1 packet Dijon mustard
- ¼ cup apple cider vinegar, divided
- 3 ounces baby spinach
- 1½ tablespoons sugar
- 4 slices sourdough bread
- 4 ounces shredded Fontina cheese

You'll need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper
12" large pan
baking sheet

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Adding water to the onions slows cooking so they caramelize without burning. Keep stirring so the onions don't stick to the bottom of the pan.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 425°F. Rinse all produce. If kohlrabi arrived with green tops, trim and discard them, then peel bulb to remove the tough skin. Cut lengthwise into thin slices, then cut lengthwise again into thin matchsticks. Slice off rounded sides of apple and thinly slice, discarding core. Peel onions, halve, and thinly slice. In a small bowl, stir together mayonnaise and spice mix to combine.

2. Caramelize onions

Heat 2 teaspoons olive oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add onions and 2 whole thyme sprigs and cook, stirring frequently, until light brown and softened, about 5 minutes (use remaining thyme in another recipe). Add 3 tablespoons water and reduce heat to medium. Cook, stirring continuously, until onions are golden and water has evaporated, about 3 minutes more. Remove pan from heat.

3. Make salad

In a large bowl, whisk together mustard, half of apple cider vinegar, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Whisking continuously, slowly add 1½ tablespoons olive oil until fully combined. Pat spinach dry with paper towel and add to bowl with dressing, along with kohlrabi and apple, and toss to combine.

4. Finish onion jam

Remove and discard whole thyme sprigs from caramelized onions. Return pan to medium-high heat and add sugar and remaining apple cider vinegar. Reduce heat to medium and cook, stirring frequently, until liquid has mostly evaporated and onions are broken down and jammy, 2–3 minutes. Remove pan from heat.

5. Assemble panini

Spread smoked paprika mayonnaise over both sides of bread slices and arrange on a baking sheet in a single layer, spacing apart. Sprinkle Fontina evenly over half of bread slices, then spoon over onion jam. Finish with remaining bread slices and bake until bread is toasted and cheese is melted, 6–7 minutes.

6. Plate panini

Cut Fontina and onion jam panini in half on a diagonal. Divide between serving plates and serve with kohlrabi and apple salad. Dig in!
