

Chicken Sausage Pretzel Rolls

with Creamy Mustard

Though commonly associated with Germany, pretzels are thought to have come from the Romans, who were baking the soft, chewy, salt-flecked bread long before the classic twisted knot shape was introduced. Pretzilla in New York City bakes our favorite bread into different shapes, too, like these fluffy buns that are perfect for stuffing with butterflied and pan-seared chicken sausages.

Once you cut open and flatten the sausages, or "butterfly" them, handle them gently as the casing is very fragile. Placing a heavy object on top of the sausages in the pan intensifies the heat underneath, which will help them release extra moisture before getting nice and brown.

The chicken might have a slight odor as a natural reaction to its vacuum packing.

USDA recommends cooking chicken to 165°F.

1. Prepare Ingredients

Rinse all produce. Halve lemon. Finely chop parsley leaves, discarding stems. Trim and discard ends of green beans. Halve bell pepper lengthwise, discarding seeds. Cut lengthwise into ¼-inch strips. Mince garlic. Slice rolls open lengthwise, splitting partway but leaving intact.

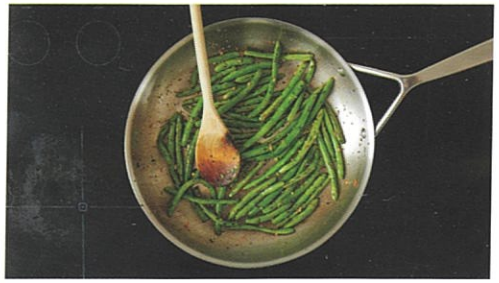

2. Sauté Peppers

Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add bell pepper. Season with ⅛ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired and cook until softened and beginning to char, 5-7 minutes. Transfer to a plate and set aside. Wipe pan clean, add 1 tablespoon olive oil, and return to medium-high heat.

3. Sear Sausages

When oil is shimmering, add sausages and sear, flipping, until golden on all sides, about 5 minutes total. Remove from pan and slice open lengthwise, splitting partway but leaving intact. Return split sausages to pan cut-side down, then place a medium heavy pan or plate on top to flatten (see Recipe Tip). Sear until cooked through and no longer pink, 3 minutes more. Transfer to plate with bell pepper.

4. Sauté Green Beans

While sausages sear, heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a medium pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add green beans and sauté, stirring, until slightly charred, 4-5 minutes. Add parsley and garlic and sauté until fragrant, 1-2 minutes more. Remove from heat, stir in juice of ½ lemon, and season with ¼ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Divide evenly between 2 serving plates. Use remaining lemon to brighten a glass of water.

5. Toast Rolls and Make Creamy Mustard

Wipe pan from sausages clean and return to medium heat. Arrange rolls cut-side down in a single layer and toast until light golden and warmed through, about 3 minutes. Meanwhile, in a medium bowl, whisk together mustard, mayonnaise, and apple cider vinegar until fully combined. Season with ⅛ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired.

6. Plate Sausage Rolls

Stuff rolls with chicken sausages and bell pepper, dividing evenly. Drizzle over creamy mustard, serve with green beans, and dig in!
