Chicken Marsala Pizza

with Mozzarella

Tonight's recipe has all the components of the Italian dish for which it's named, just in pizza form. Juicy chicken breast, Marsala wine, cremini mushrooms, and mascarpone cheese simmer together before being piled on top of a crisp pizza crust. This pizza is magic—one minute it's fresh out of the oven, and the next it has suddenly disappeared. . . wonder how that happened?

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Pizza dough softens as it warms—the longer you let it sit at room temperature, the easier it'll be to roll out. We recommend at least 15 minutes, so that once your prep is finished, your dough is good to go.

The chicken might have a slight odor as a natural reaction to its vacuum packing. USDA recommends cooking chicken to 165°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Preheat oven to 425°F. Remove pizza dough from bag and let soften at room temperature (see recipe tip). Wipe mushrooms clean with a damp paper towel and cut into ¼-inch slices. Rinse remaining produce. Thinly slice chives. Strip rosemary leaves, discarding stems, then mince. Mince garlic. Line a baking sheet with parchment paper and rub with 1 teaspoon olive oil.

2. Sear chicken

Pat chicken very dry with paper towel and season all over with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Heat ½ tablespoon olive oil in a medium high-sided pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add chicken skin-side down and sear until skin is golden and easily lifts from pan, 5–7 minutes (it will finish cooking in Step 4).

3. Par-bake crust

While chicken sears, sprinkle flour onto a clean, dry surface, coating a rolling pin or your hands with a thin layer. Roll or stretch dough into a rectangular shape, rotating frequently and working from center to edges, until ¼-inch thick. Add dough to prepared sheet, gently stretching to reach edges of sheet, and rub 2 teaspoons olive oil on top. Bake until crust is lightly browned and beginning to crisp, 9–11 minutes.

4. Finish chicken and mushrooms

Once skin is golden, flip chicken, still over medium-high heat; scatter around mushrooms in pan. Cook until chicken is no longer pink and mushrooms are tender, 5–7 minutes. Transfer chicken to cutting board; set aside to rest for 5 minutes, leaving mushrooms behind in pan. Add Marsala wine, rosemary, and garlic to pan. Cook, stirring occasionally, until liquid has mostly evaporated, 2–4 minutes more. Season with ⅛ teaspoon salt and pepper; remove pan from heat.

5. Assemble and bake pizza

Cut rested chicken into ¼-inch slices, removing chicken skin if desired. To pan with mushrooms, still off heat, stir in mascarpone and sliced chicken to combine. Spread chicken Marsala evenly over pizza crust, leaving a ½-inch border. Scatter over mozzarella. Bake until crust is crisp and cheese is bubbling, 8–10 minutes.

6. Plate chicken Marsala pizza

Garnish chicken Marsala pizza with chives. Cut into slices and transfer to serving plates. Enjoy!
