Salmon Niçoise

with Champagne Vinaigrette

Salade Niçoise is one of the easiest French classics to master. Traditionally, a bed of greens is topped with sections of potatoes, green beans, tomatoes, and Niçoise olives. We're adding seared salmon fillets to tonight's version, and dressing the salad with a light Champagne vinaigrette. This dish will transport you to a bistro table by the French Riviera, and you don't even have to leave your kitchen.

Plated.

Ingredients

- 6 ounces green beans
- ½ English cucumber
- 1 plum tomato
- 1 herb mix
  - ⅛ ounce chives
  - ⅛ ounce parsley
- 1 shallot
- 8 ounces peanut potatoes
- 10 ounces salmon
- 3 packets unsalted butter
- 1 tablespoon Champagne vinegar
- 1 packet Dijon mustard
- 3 ounces mixed lettuces
- ¼ cup Niçoise olives

You'll need

olive oil kosher salt
black pepper
8" medium pot
10" medium nonstick pan with lid

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

Use the remaining shallot in a simple vinaigrette or vegetable sauté.

Small, firm Niçoise olives have a milder flavor than Kalamata olives and a meaty texture.

Traditionally, this salad is served with each ingredient in its own section. You can also toss everything together with the vinaigrette, then top with the salmon fillets.

USDA recomends cooking fish to 145°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Bring a medium pot of water to a boil over high heat. Rinse all produce. Trim and discard ends of green beans (line up the ends to trim them all at once). Halve cucumber lengthwise, then thinly slice crosswise on a diagonal. Halve tomato lengthwise, then cut crosswise into ¼-inch half-moons. Thinly slice chives. Roughly chop parsley leaves, discarding stems. Peel shallot and mince enough to yield 1 tablespoon (see recipe tip).

2. Cook potatoes and green beans

Season boiling water generously with salt. Add potatoes and cook until tender, about 8 minutes. Then, add green beans and cook until green beans are bright green and potatoes are tender when pierced with a knife tip, about 2 minutes more. Drain and return to pot, off heat. Meanwhile, pat salmon dry with paper towel.

3. Sear salmon

Season salmon all over with ½ teaspoon salt and pepper. Heat 2 teaspoons olive oil in a medium nonstick pan over medium heat. When oil is shimmering, add salmon flesh-side down and sear until golden on bottom, 5 minutes. Flip salmon and cover pan, keeping lid slightly ajar for steam to escape. Continue searing until salmon is cooked through and opaque, 3–5 minutes more. Remove pan from heat and cover to keep warm.

4. Season potatoes and green beans

Place pot with green beans and potatoes over medium heat and add butter, parsley, half of chives, ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Cook, stirring, until combined and butter is melted, 1–2 minutes. Remove pot from heat and set aside until ready to serve.

5. Make Champagne vinaigrette

In a large bowl, whisk together Champagne vinegar, mustard, shallot, and remaining chives. Whisking continuously, slowly add 2 tablespoons olive oil until fully combined. Season with ¼ teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Add mixed lettuces to bowl with vinaigrette, waiting to toss until ready to serve.

6. Plate salmon Niçoise

Divide mixed lettuces between serving plates. Place salmon in center of plates. Arrange olives (see recipe tip), cucumbers, and tomato on 1 side of salmon. Arrange green beans and potatoes on other side of salmon (see recipe tip). Drizzle any remaining Champagne vinaigrette over salmon Niçoise, and dig in!
