Bánh Mì Turkey Burgers

with Quick Pickles and Sambal Mayo

In the U.S., bành mí brings to mind a baguette overflowing with savory meats and pickled veggies—but the term actually refers to all wheat-based breads in Vietnam, where French colonizers introduced them. Inspired by the classic sandwich, these turkey burgers are stacked with the same crunchy pickles (cucumber ribbons, radish, and carrot), fresh herbs, and creamy-spicy mayo on toasted brioche buns.

Plated.

Ingredients

- 2 brioche buns
- 3 ounces red radishes
- 1 herb mix
  - ¼ ounce cilantro
  - ¼ ounce chives, divided
- 1 English cucumber
- 1 lime, divided
- 1½ tablespoons sugar
- 3 tablespoons rice wine vinegar
- 1 cup shredded carrots
- 1 packet soy sauce
- 12 ounces ground turkey
- 2 ounces mayonnaise
- 1 tablespoon sambal oelek

You'll need

canola oil kosher salt
black pepper
vegetable peeler
12" large pan with lid

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking.

No vegetable peeler? Halve cucumber lengthwise, then thinly slice crosswise into half-moons. Thin slices pickle quickly, and add an eye-catching layer to the burgers.

Indonesian sambal chile paste adds sweet-savory flavor and a little heat to the mayonnaise. Skip or use half to make it milder.

USDA recommends cooking ground turkey to 160°F.

1. Prepare ingredients

Slice buns open horizontally, if they arrived whole. Rinse all produce. Halve radishes lengthwise, then thinly slice crosswise into half-moons. Pick cilantro leaves, discarding stems. Thinly slice chives. Halve cucumber lengthwise, then arrange cut-side down. Using a vegetable peeler, peel cucumber lengthwise into wide ribbons, flipping halfway through, until you reach the thin center (see recipe tip).

2. Pickle vegetables

If you have a zester and want to infuse your burgers with even more flavor, rinse lime and zest up to ½ into a large bowl, then halve. In a separate medium bowl, whisk together sugar, rice wine vinegar, 1 squeeze lime juice, and ¼ teaspoon salt to combine. Add carrots, radishes, and cucumber ribbons and toss to coat. Place in refrigerator to chill and pickle until ready to serve.

3. Form turkey burgers

To large bowl with lime zest (if using), add soy sauce, half of chives, ½ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Add turkey. Using your hands, mix well, then form into 2 equal patties, about 1 inch thick. Using your thumb, create a dimple on top of each—this will help them keep their shape when cooked in Step 5. Set turkey burgers aside.

4. Toast buns and season mayo

Place buns cut-side down in a large pan over medium heat. Toast until light golden and warmed through, 2–3 minutes. Transfer buns to serving plates, reserving pan off heat for the next step. In a small bowl, combine mayonnaise and juice of ½ lime. Add sambal oelek (see recipe tip). Stir to combine, then set sambal mayo aside until ready to serve.

5. Cook turkey burgers

Place pan from buns over medium-high heat and add 2 teaspoons canola oil. When oil is shimmering, add burgers and sear until browned on bottom, 5–6 minutes. Flip burgers, cover pan, and reduce heat to medium. Continue searing until cooked through and no longer pink, 5–6 minutes more. Transfer burgers to a plate and set aside to rest for about 5 minutes.

6. Plate turkey burgers

While burgers rest, drain vegetables, discarding pickling liquid. Spread buns with sambal mayo. Layer bun bottoms with turkey burgers and a handful of quick pickles. Add remaining chives to bowl with remaining quick pickles and toss to combine, then serve alongside bánh mí turkey burgers. Garnish everything with cilantro and dig in!
