Marcona almonds that hail from the Catalonia region of Spain are larger than the American variety and higher in fat and flavor. These buttery nuts provide crunch and flavor contrast to the tart-sweet balsamic chicken marinade and the tangy bleu cheese.

USDA recommends cooking chicken to 165° F.

1. Prepare Ingredients

Bring a large pot of water to a boil over high heat. Rinse all produce. Roughly chop Marcona almonds. Tear butter lettuce into bite-size pieces, discarding tough root. Trim and discard dirt from mâche if necessary, then separate leaves into bite-size pieces. Trim and discard ends of green beans. Halve lemon. Rinse chicken and pat dry with paper towel.

2. Marinate Chicken

In a shallow bowl or large resealable plastic bag, whisk together balsamic vinegar, Dijon mustard, herbes de Provence, half of honey, and 1 tablespoon olive oil. Add chicken and turn to coat. Set aside to marinate for about 10 minutes at room temperature.

3. Make Dressing

While chicken marinates, in a large bowl, whisk together juice of 1 lemon, remaining honey, and 1 tablespoon olive oil. Taste and add salt and pepper as needed.

4. Blanch Green Beans

Heat a grill or grill pan to medium-high heat. Add green beans and a generous pinch salt to pot of boiling water. Cook until bright green, about 1 minute, then drain and immediately rinse under cold water for 30 seconds to stop cooking. Add to bowl with dressing and toss to coat.

5. Grill Chicken

Brush grill or grill pan with 1 teaspoon olive oil. Remove chicken from marinade, allowing excess to drip off. Season on both sides with salt and pepper. When oil is just smoking, add chicken and grill until lightly charred on outside and cooked through, 5-6 minutes per side. Remove and cut each piece crosswise into 4 slices.

6. Plate Chicken

Add butter lettuce and mâche to bowl with green beans and toss to coat. Divide salad evenly between 2 plates. Top with chicken and Marcona almonds. Scatter over bleu cheese and serve.
