Balsamic-Marinated Steak

with Roasted Vegetables and Creamy Horseradish

Did you know that horseradish comes from the same family as wasabi? This root vegetable has an intensely pungent flavor that adds kick to everything from mashed potatoes to Bloody Marys. Here, we combine it with sour cream to cut through the richness of seared steaks (the sauce is a steakhouse staple). If you prefer less punch, start by adding a little horseradish to the sauce, tasting, and adjusting to your preferences.

- large resealable plastic bag (optional)
- aluminum foil
- baking sheet
- 12" large pan

Recipe tips

Be sure to read through the entire recipe before you begin cooking. Trust us—you'll be glad you did!

Keeping the cut sides of the vegetables in direct contact with the hot baking sheet ensures they turn a crisp golden brown.

Cutting meat against the grain ensures tenderness. Find the direction of the grain (muscle fibers) and slice across it, rather than parallel.

Ready to plate like a pro? Add the sauce to the plates first, then fan the sliced steak over top. The color contrast helps the meat pop on the plate for a pretty presentation.

USDA recommends cooking beef to 145°F.

1. Marinate steaks

Preheat oven to 450°F. In a large shallow bowl or resealable plastic bag, combine balsamic vinegar and 2 tablespoons olive oil. Pat steaks dry with paper towel and add to bowl with marinade; turn to coat. Set aside to marinate at room temperature for at least 10 minutes.

2. Roast vegetables

While steaks marinate, rinse all produce. Cut carrots crosswise on a diagonal into ½-inch slices. Halve potatoes lengthwise. On a foil-lined baking sheet, toss carrots and potatoes with 2 tablespoons olive oil, 1 teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired. Arrange cut-side down in a single layer (see recipe tip) and roast until tender and lightly browned, 18–20 minutes.

3. Sear steaks

While vegetables roast, remove steaks from marinade, allowing excess to drip off. Season all over with 1 teaspoon salt and pepper as desired. Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. When oil is shimmering, add steaks and sear, working in batches and adding oil as needed, until browned and medium rare, 4–6 minutes per side. Transfer steaks to a plate and set aside to rest.

4. Make creamy horseradish

While steaks sear, in a small bowl, whisk together sour cream, horseradish (feel free to use less for milder flavor), ¼ teaspoon salt, and pepper as desired until combined. Set creamy horseradish aside until ready to serve.

5. Finish vegetables

Finely chop parsley leaves and stems. Once vegetables are roasted, add half of parsley to baking sheet and toss to combine.

6. Plate balsamic steak

Cut rested steaks against the grain into ¼-inch slices (see recipe tip). Divide roasted vegetables among serving plates. Spread creamy horseradish on plate with vegetables and top with sliced steak (see recipe tip). Garnish with remaining parsley. Dig in!
